

UUCM Covenant of Right Relations

We, the members and friends of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Minnetonka, agree to this covenant of right relations with one another.

Through this covenant we promise to strive:

To honor our interactions with others by being present, listening, being respectful of everyone and taking concerns directly to those involved

To trust, even when in disagreement, the good intentions of others

To be inclusive in actions and decision making and to find shared ground among diverse viewpoints

To respect and adhere to congregational decisions resulting from open discussion and the democratic process.

We affirm through this covenant to create a community that enjoys and embraces its time together, and speaks the truth in love as we pursue the mission, vision and values of our church and congregation.
