Dear Pastor Rispoli,

Please allow me to introduce myself. My name is Lynne Nofi. I am a Certified Elementary Educator, and Christian Author of children's books, through which I am a family and child advocate.

As a Christian Author, my mission is to teach spiritually based understandings through creativity in a way that inspires children and families to build a better future in Christ. My literature brings Christian values to families. Love, family bonding, and unity is my fundamental message. My books aid families towards unconditional love, forgiveness, prayer, worship and placing God as the anchor. Heart of a Child Publications offers parents the opportunity to set aside time for their children and spark meaningful and God-centered conversations.

I believe The Heartfelt Hug Challenge is a God-given challenge that can be accepted to share God's love, word, and hugs across America.

As the Body of Christ, in the Family of God, we know and encounter our Heavenly Father's love every day. Many of us know at least one child or adult who has not encountered the love of God in a tangible way yet.

My book called "What is Unconditional Love?" is a key to open the heart of the family to give and receive the warmth of God's love and His salvation message. In a world that has waxed cold in the area of relationships, pertinent scriptures will gently guide family members, young and old, into what God has intended for us, warm, loving relationships. We need to believe and receive God's love in order to be able to give it away. God's love was meant to be shared.

I have been blessed by the testimonies of those who have already read "What is Unconditional Love?" One child in second grade shared with me that she now knows that God's love is unstoppable since she read the book. Another woman, an alcoholic, purchased a copy of the book even though many have tried unsuccessfully for years to share the love of God with her. She felt the book was simple to understand and non-offensive and she enjoyed reading it.

I would like to invite you and your church members or school students to accept The Heartfelt Hug Challenge. If you are interested in having me present the challenge to your church members or school students I would be privileged to be of service to you. You may contact me to schedule an appropriate time that you would like me to come to present the challenge and sell/sign books. Please keep The Heartfelt Hug Challenge in prayer and agree with me that many will receive God's love, word, salvation and Heartfelt Hug through it.

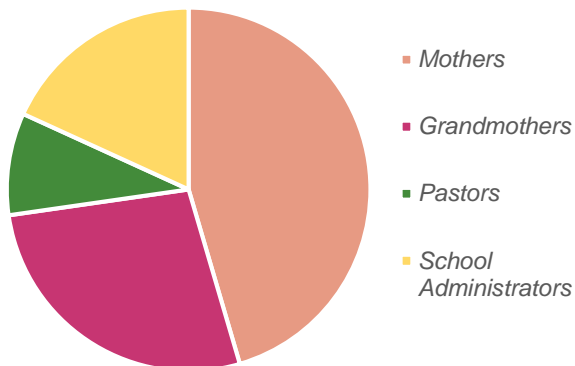

Thank you for allowing me to share what I believe is God's heart for America. God bless you and God bless America!

Blessings,
Lynne Nofi, Christian Author
