

Directions to the Lazy Bum Ranch Cottage

Getting to the cottage at the Lazy Bum Ranch is pretty straightforward. The address is:

17235 SW Swank Rd.
Sherwood, OR 97140

We haven't tried all of the map services, but Google maps will get you there pretty reliably. For sure, following Google maps directions will get you here, to the entrance to the driveway.

When you get to the 6 mailboxes, turn right down the gravel driveway and go straight back. Our house is the one at the end of this segment of the drive.

There is a little sign with the house number, "17235." Pull in to the driveway on the right.

Feel free to park anywhere on the asphalt. Most guests prefer to park here, it's the most private.

The house just through the cypress trees is where you will stay. There are two paths, the one shown and one just to the left. Both are flagstones and a bit uneven. We recommend using the one to the left because it is a bit easier to navigate. Many guests prefer the one shown because it is the most private. Do feel free to use whichever you prefer.

There is an electronic lock on the door. The last 4 digits of your phone number will unlock it. Just press the "Yale" logo, enter your personal code, and press the "check" key.
