First Lutheran Church in Ault is pleased to offer Thanksgiving and Christmas food boxes to the Ault/Highland community again this year. Requests received by 10/31/2022 will be filled to the best of our ability until we run out of donated holiday food. We will call families at the number they list above by 11/13/2022 to let them know if we are able to provide them with a food box.

An adult may request assistance based on their own family's need. Friends and neighbors may encourage a family to request a food box, but please do not request food for a household other than your own. We do not want food to go to waste due to a misunderstanding about a household's needs.

We are pleased to be working with Farmers Bank & Northern Plains Library to offer help with Angel Tree gifts again this year. If you would like to request assistance with gifts for your children (up to 16 yrs), please complete the information below for each child:

Child		Gift Idea (e.g. coat, gym shoes, puzzle, book, toy, etc.)
Name	Age	Item	color	size

Food boxes will be distributed to the selected families at First Lutheran Church, 402 Graefe, Ault, CO. We will not be able to deliver food for either holiday. Distribution will be November 21 for Thanksgiving; December 21 for Christmas.

Food not picked up by 8pm on distribution day will be given to another family.
