IT'S HARVEST TIME

"The fields are ready for harvest" 9th Aug

Hear it - The sound, the roar of the harvester on the move.

See it - As it reaps the harvest.

Cloud Over it - A hue called "Chaff Dust" hovers over the harvester like the Holy Spirit moves like a cloud.

Smell it - The aroma of the presence of God.

Excitement of the harvest - The waiting and preparation has been done and now it's time for the harvest.

This is the most amazing sight. I thought that my beach moments were inspirational, but as I watch at the excitement of Harvest time -

The roar of the combine harvester -

I am elated beyond measure, thrilled beyond belief that it's "Harvest Time"

I have just recalled with my father (Jim) of those days as a young child of a feeling that something was going to happen. The Unity - the expectation of a yield that Jim, Arthur, Edwin and Ernest had worked hard for - no hardship for these men as they knew there would be a harvest. Amen.

Today, I have caught a glimpse of the "Harvest Revival"

What it looks like, what it feels like, what it smells like. I am truly excited and expectant.

Don't give up, don't give in. Keep pressing on,

Pastor Joanna

Jim's Jotting's

At my sharing on Sunday afternoon I just want to reiterate my question that was "Has anything good or exciting happened, or impressed you this past week?"

Only three hands were raised and stated their outstanding moment, I thought to myself "come on, everyone else, where have they been all week, no one even had an ice cream." I am not getting facetious. I am reminding you and myself... to redeem the time with our eyes, ears and spirit. The harvest time has passed so no grumbling now because the corn has been gathered with food for you!

Soon, the leaves will be falling on the road. Winter is coming. Prepare for dark nights and cold. My plea is REDEEM THE TIME!! YES! ONLY ONE LIFE!!

My text last Sunday was St. Matthew 22 starting at a question asked to our saviour Jesus as a challenge, the answer astounded them. A pharisee asked a question v.34 to which Jesus replied v.37 "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul and all your mind" and the second is like it "Love your neighbour as yourself" I find that those 2 commandments keep me on track and observant with time to sleep at the appropriate hours. You too!

Be Blessed,

Jim Wilkinson
