

Jim's Jottings

Summer is almost over, and the harvest is almost here. The grain harvesters have ceased to block the transport on the roads and the days are gently changing to dark evening times. Winter is soon approaching, and all is changing again “inside and out”. Folks are mentioning Autumn and Winter and that “It will soon be your birthday again Jim!”

Amongst these months, it is still nearly Harvest Time – the vegetable time, potatoes, carrots, sprouts and beetroots etc.

All my life (I'm now 94 years old) I have witnessed the Church Harvest Thanksgiving meetings being held with a Thanksgiving ‘get together’ including a pass around the collection plate to collect donations for a good cause.

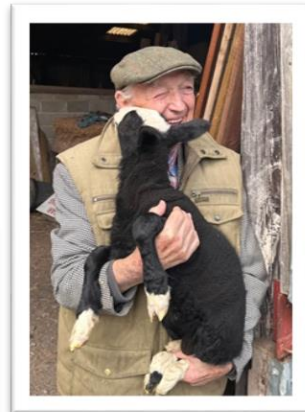

All good gifts around us are sent from Heaven Above by God

And reminded by our Saviour – Jesus Christ

Please be a thankful Christian and enjoy every moment that goes by.

Sincerely,
Jim Wilkinson

“Seasons”

Joanna's Jottings

Have you noticed how the nights are drawing in?

Autumn is upon us,

The temperatures are getting cooler,

The days are getting shorter,

And as we have experienced in recent days the weather has become stormier and very windy...

But, what I have noticed just today is that I can see a massive clearing through the trees that were once laden with leaves over the summer time, that held views of the hills from me over the summer time have yet become a wider view of the landscape again... truly amazing...

I just love all the four seasons and all the different dynamics that they bring...

True for the Church and Fellowship here at Hollybush, is it a new season for us and are we entrusting Jesus to whatever that may look like in the coming months??

What an amazing, anointed time we have had over the summer... Praise His name...

But, do we want more...?

A fresh aspect to our focus and vision...

We were reminded, just last Sunday (the final Sunday in August) that “He who began a good work in you/me is faithful to complete it...” Hallelujah!

As I watched my most precious, incredible, beautiful mum in the weeks before she left us and went to Glory..

This very verse kept residing in my spirit...

And, He was faithful and He completed the work in my most perfect mum and made everything complete.

(God's plans are not always our plans)

Take hold of today, tomorrow and the day after and live for Jesus.

My very first tape recording, yes, tape!! (Now available in C.D) was called

“ Living For Jesus”

I am praying that our endeavour and mine is exactly that...

Let's live for Jesus!

With love and sincerity,

Pastor Joanna
