BAKED GOODS DIVISION

Due to limited space please see rule #10 in general rules.

Cakes, breads and pies must have two identical, completed entry tags for each item. Baked cakes and breads will be judged as the whole product. Other baked items must be placed on a 6” disposable plate and placed in a clear plastic zip lock bag to be accepted. No decorations such as ribbons, doilies, etc.

After judging, all cakes and breads should be picked up by 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, October 8, 2024. Grand and Reserve winners will leave ¼ of the cake or bread for display, you may pick up the remaining portion. All cakes and breads not picked up by 5:00 p.m. will be disposed of. All cakes must be on a sturdy, disposable sheet of cardboard no larger than 1” from the edge of the item which has been covered with aluminum foil or white paper. Glass plates will not be accepted.

The fair is not responsible for any damage due to climate control.

If siblings are competing against one another in the same division (example – a brother and sister both bake brownies in the 4-H Junior Division), it would be to their advantage to modify the recipe if possible. For example, if one enters a brownie, the other should enter brownies with nuts. By doing this, the entries will be easier to distinguish.

No recipes may contain any Alcohol.

CANNED FOODS DIVISION

Based on the recommendations of Ball Canning, the following criteria applies. The level of jar contents must be ¼” to ½” from the top of the jar lid. Low acid canned food items (items in pressure canner) need to have 1” head-space. All canned foods do not need a label, just an entry tag. All jars must be clean and shiny with rings. Canning can be done in only a standard canning jar (Mason, Ball, Kerr, etc.) – salad dressing or other such jars are not allowed. Fruit, vegetables, fruit pickles, and vegetable pickles – pieces in jars should be uniform in size and product should not be floating. Jelly must be firm, but not hard or with visible sugar crystals. It must pull away clean from the side of the jar and still hold its shape. Fruit or vegetable juice must be bright and have a clear color. It should not be cloudy. Quality canned items do not have air pockets or bubbles among the vegetable or fruit pieces. Please note that each Category must have four (4) or more items to be awarded Grand or Reserve Champions.

CANNED FOODS DIVISION

All canned foods do not need a label, just an entry tag. Based on the recommendations of Ball's canning, the level of jar contents must be $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ " from the top of the jar lid. Low acid canned food items (items in pressure canner) need to have 1" head-space. All jars must be clean and shiny with rings. Canning can be done in only a standard canning jar (Mason, Ball, Kerr, etc.) – salad dressing or other such jars are not allowed. Fruit, vegetables, fruit pickles and vegetable pickles – pieces in jars should be uniform in size and product should not be floating. Jelly must be firm, with no visible sugar crystals. It must pull away clean from the side of the jar and still hold its shape. Fruit or vegetable juice must be bright and have a clear color. It should not be cloudy. Quality canned items do not have air pockets or bubbles among the vegetable or fruit pieces. .

Please note that each Category must have four (4) or more items to be awarded Grand or Reserve Champions.
