Please make checks payable to the Austin County Fair. No cash!
Birds will not be wing-banded. A minimum of 5 toms and/or 5 hens must be ordered per exhibitor. Additional birds may be ordered in increments of 5 toms and/or 5 hens not to exceed 20 toms and/or hens per exhibitor.

All order forms must be turned in by Friday, March 6, by 5:00 P.M.

There will be no exceptions to this rule. No late orders. Completed order forms need to be turned into your FFA Advisor or Austin County 4H Office. A family may purchase and feed turkey poults in the same turkey facilities. This will be interpreted as immediate family living in the same household.

We, the undersigned, have read the Austin County Livestock Catalog and agree to abide by all rules and regulations pertaining to the animal listed on this validation and order form. We also agree that if for some reason the animal listed above will be out of our care or fed at another location than that listed above for a period of 72 hours or more we will inform the poultry committee chairman. By signing this validation and order form, we give permission to the livestock superintendent, the poultry committee chairman or his designated representative, and/or the supervising agricultural science teacher or county extension agent to make project visits to the location listed above. Failure to comply with these or any other rules deemed necessary by the board of directors or livestock committee(s) of the Austin County Fair Association will result in disqualification of the validated animal and the exhibitor(s).

If the poultry industry becomes quarantined in the State, Region, or County due to an outbreak of a disease in the industry the Austin County Fair and Texas Animal Health Commission is not responsible if the turkey show is canceled, altered, or modified in any way.
