We arrive in Bergen this afternoon, where we meet our driver, and travel a short distance to our hotel in the heart of the city. We transfer to our hotel where we have dinner tonight. D

Day 3: Saturday, July 18, 2026 • Bergen

This morning, a local guide meets us at our hotel and leads us on a panoramic tour of this remarkable coastal city. Our journey begins at the iconic Hanseatic Wharf, a UNESCO World Heritage site, where we delve into Bergen's storied maritime past and the fiery events that helped shape its resilient spirit. We continue on to the nearby Bergenhus Fortress, one of Norway's oldest and best-preserved fortresses, offering a glimpse into medieval life and royal legacy. We pass through charming neighborhoods by bus, taking in sweeping views and stopping at St. Mary's Church, in the heart of the historic quarter. The tour continues to Troidhaugen, the idyllic former home of Norway's beloved composer, Edvard Grieg, beautifully situated beside the lake. Later, we make our way to the lively Fish Market, where vibrant stalls brim with fresh seafood and local delicacies, before ascending Mount Fløyen aboard the Fløibanen Funicular for panoramic views over Bergen and the surrounding fjords the remainder of the afternoon, is at our leisure to further explore the city. You may wish to venture to the intriguing Fantoft Stave Church, a reconstructed 12th-century wooden church tucked in a tranquil forest setting, or simply unwind at one of Bergen's charming cafés or seafood restaurants. Dinner is at a local restaurant tonight. B, D

Day 4: Sunday, July 19, 2026 • Balestrand

We depart this morning we head north toward Stalheim to the Stalheim Hotel. This historic hotel boasts the finest view in Norway with beautiful panoramic views of the fjord. We will pick up a box lunch after visiting the Stahlheim Museum and continue on to Flam, on the shore of the Aurlandsfjord. This afternoon we board the world-famous Flam Train and enjoy a round-trip ride on one of the world's most scenic railways. We continue to Balestrand and en route travel through the Laerdal Tunnel, the world's longest road tunnel before our overnight in one of the most beautiful hotels in all of Norway, Kviknes Hotel. B, L, D

Day 5: Monday, July 20, 2026 • Geiranger

Our first stop this morning is at Boyabreen, a scenic stopping point to get up close to the fastest moving glacier in Norway, Jostedalbreen! We continue to Skei, where we stop at the best souvenir shop in Norway, run by the kindest shopkeeper. With our pewter and sweaters stowed in our bags, we continue north to Hellesylt, where we board a ferry and spend an hour cruising on the most breathtaking fjord in Norway – the Geirangerfjord. Along the way, we pass towering cliffs, lush waterfalls, and the famous Seven Sisters waterfall, cascading in elegant streams down the mountainside – a highlight of this magical journey. We spend the night in Geiranger tonight, and after dinner, those who are willing are welcome to a traditional swim in the fjord. Others are welcome to photograph the breathtaking plunge – and reaction. B, D

Day 6: Tuesday, July 21, 2026 • Molde

We depart Geiranger this morning, and before tackling the mountain roads, we make a stop at Varden Viewpoint for one last, sweeping panorama of the Geirangerfjord from above – a truly unforgettable farewell to this iconic landscape. From there, our driver ascends the steep, winding slopes of Eagle's Road, into the mountains overlooking the fjord. We then travel across the beautiful, rugged mountain plateau leading to the Troll's Highway, where our driver is even more challenged to descend this even steeper and windier road down a nearly sheer mountain face. We have lunch at the Trollstigen Café. Then we take in more beautiful fjord scenery en route to Molde, famous for roses and jazz, and a breathtaking panoramic view. B, L

Day 7: Wednesday, July 22, 2026 • Trondheim

We depart Molde and travel to Trondheim, the millennia old city, which was the original capital of Norway, Trondheim. We visit the Ringve Museum of Musical History, where the history of Norway's music to life. This beautiful manor house was the childhood home of Norwegian naval hero Petter Wessel Tordenskiold and is surrounded by a wonderful botanical garden. The Museum is conveniently located just outside Trondheim and represents an idyllic spot to enjoy the beautiful views of both the city and the fjord. Tonight, we enjoy dinner together. B, D

Day 8: Thursday, July 23, 2026 • Trondheim

Few large cities have managed to preserve their intimacy as effectively as Trondheim. An ancient city, it was founded by the Viking King Olav Trygvason as early as 997. A local guide joins us as we begin with Norway's national shrine, Nidaros Cathedral - Norway's only Gothic style cathedral, built over the burial place of St. Olav, Norway's patron saint. After we marvel at the cathedral's incredible architectural details and exquisite works of art, we have some free time. B, D

Day 9: Friday, July 24, 2026 • Lillehammer

We turn south today, traveling through the interior of Norway, via the Gudbrandsdal Valley to Lillehammer, home of the 1994 Winter Olympic Games. We visit the ski jump area and might even see some summer skiers working out on the slopes. B, D

Day 10: Saturday, July 25, 2026 • Oslo

This morning, we depart Lillehammer and travel south toward Oslo, following the scenic shores of Lake Mjøsa. Along the way, we pause in the town of Hamar to view the striking glass structure known as the "upside-down ship"—the modern enclosure of the medieval Hamar Cathedral ruins, part of the Domkirkeodden Museum. This unique blend of ancient stonework and contemporary design offers a fascinating glimpse into Norway's ecclesiastical history in a stunning lakeside setting. Upon arrival in Oslo, we are met by our local guide for a panoramic tour of the capital. Highlights include Frogner Park, with its world-renowned Vigeland Sculpture installation, as well as the city's historic downtown, bustling harbor front, and elegant boulevards. Afterwards, enjoy some free time to shop, explore on our own, or simply take in the charm of this vibrant Nordic capital. B, D

Day 11: Sunday, July 26, 2026 • Oslo

We spend the morning on Bygdøy Island where we see a Gol Stave Church from the year 1200, Kon Tiki Museum and the Fram Museum – all about the polar ship. The afternoon is free in Oslo, perhaps to buy that last souvenir or gift. Tonight, we enjoy our farewell dinner at a unique restaurant that blends local ingredients and traditional Norwegian recipes with top-notch cooking skills to produce culinary masterpieces. B, D

Day 12: Monday, July 27, 2026 • Return

Sadly, this morning, we must bid our driver farewell, after we are transferred to Oslo's Gardermoen International Airport, where we board our flight for the return across the Atlantic. We bring with us memories of some of the world's most beautiful scenery, centuries old buildings, the history of the Vikings, and the friends we have met along the way. B
