Day by Day Itinerary

Tuesday, July 7 – Depart for Ashland, Wisconsin

We depart early this morning for our first day of travel. After a stop for lunch along the way, we'll end our day's journey in the city of Ashland, a port on the southern shore of Lake Superior, near the head of Chequamegon Bay. Check-in the beautiful, historic Hotel Chequamegon in Ashland hotel with remainder of day at leisure. (L)

Wednesday, July 8 – Ashland / Bayfield / Apostle Islands National Lakeshore

Following Breakfast at our hotel, we will begin the day at the Apostle Islands National Lakeshore Museum to see a video and view the exhibits.

Afterwards, enjoy lunch on our own and time for shopping in town. We then travel a bit further north to the city of Bayfield, a former county seat, lumbering town, and commercial fishing community, and today a tourist and resort destination. Bayfield is the gateway to the Apostle Islands National Lakeshore, and today we'll depart for a boat cruise through the islands, a 2-1/2 hour, where we can view sea caves and lighthouses.

Upon arrival back in Bayfield it's time to enjoy wine tasting at Bayfield Winery & Blue Ox Cider. This family owned and operated winery and cidery welcomes you to their beautiful little piece of earth. Phil will explain the history of his property and says, relax, slow down and enjoy your choice of his wine and cider! Wisconsin cheese will be served.

Tonight, we'll have dinner at the Good Thyme Restaurant. Nestled within the walls of our cozily-restored 125-year-old Good Thyme house, you'll discover a treasure trove of unique details that make every event and visit truly special. (B,D)

Thursday, July 9 – Ashland / Madeline Island

Today we'll have breakfast at the hotel, then leave once again for Bayfield, where we'll take a shore ferry ride to enjoy the day on Madeline Island, the only one of the Apostle Islands that's inhabited. Upon disembarking the ferry in the town of LaPointe, we'll be met by a local guide who will give us a narrated tour of the various points of interest on the island, including Big Bay State Park, for a beautiful view of Lake Superior. We'll stop at Madeline Island Museum, owned and operated by the Wisconsin Historical Society, where we'll see a video, have a narrated tour, and time in the gift shop.

After seeing more of the island, we'll have lunch on our own, then go to specialty shops, such as Woods Hall Gallery and Studios, an island cooperative, for handcrafts, books and souvenirs created by local weavers and artists, some of whom work on-site in the studio.

After the ferry we head back to the hotel for a little R&R before we have dinner at The Landings Restaurant in our hotel. (B,D)

Friday, July 10 – Ashland / Bayfield / Hauser Farms / Erickson Orchards

After breakfast at the hotel, we'll board the coach and tour the Historic Murals of Ashland, located mostly in the 8-block Main Street business district, which is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Afterwards we stop at local church for tour. Enjoy lunch at lovely Deepwater Grill.

We'll then continue to the Northern Great Lakes Visitor Center, where we can view video and exhibits, go up to the observation tower, and spend time in the gift shop.

This afternoon we stop at Hauser Farms, followed by shopping at Erickson Orchard. Some favorite items to bring home include apple wine, apple syrup, and various jams, butters, and spreads.

Following our visit we end at the Old Rittenhouse Inn, built in 1890 in the Queen Anne style. Enjoy a short presentation about the Rittenhouse and then we'll settle in and enjoy an elegant three-course Victorian Dinner at the Landmark Restaurant in this lovely, historic inn. (B,D)

Saturday, July 11 – Leave Ashland, depart for home

After Breakfast at the hotel, it'll be time to depart for home. Stop for lunch included. (B,L)
