GENERAL PLAYGROUND RULES -

1. All participants are expected to follow the rules and commands given by the playground leaders while on the playground property. Talking back, swearing, spitting, rudeness and disrespectful behavior will not be tolerated.
2. No climbing of fences, trees, roofs or equipment not designed for climbing. No jumping or standing on tables, benches, and play equipment. No hanging from the pavilion rafters.
3. No throwing of sticks, dirt, wood chips or food.
4. Playing is not permitted in the street, alley, steps or restrooms. The alley is not considered part of the playground for play purposes.
5. Be respectful of playground property and return all equipment to the office at the end of the playground session.
6. No children are permitted in the office without a leader present.
7. Children are not permitted in the concession stand.
8. All children 6 years of age or younger must be accompanied and supervised by an adult.
9. Be respectful of the other children on the playground.
10. All trash must be thrown in the trash cans provided and recycling is to be placed in the proper containers. All children will be required to participate in picking up trash if the playground doesn't remain clean. Failure to participate in cleanup will result in a warning. If your child leaves the playground to avoid picking up trash, they will not be allowed back on the playground.
11. If the playground is not clean, the concession stand will not open. If it is a special food night, the event will be cancelled.
12. Keep the bathrooms tidy.
13. No smoking or alcoholic beverages are permitted on the playground.
14. By Borough Ordinance, No pets are permitted on the playground property (including the curb area) at any time.
