

Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Hebrews 1:2-3, 2:2-4. In the prophet's questioning about the success of the wicked, God finally replies that the person lives by faith.

Psalm 95. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

2 Timothy 1: 6-8, 13-14. Stir into flame the grace given to you. It is no cowardly spirit. Guard the rich deposit of faith.

Luke 17:5-10. The apostles pray, "Lord, increase our faith." Faith, Jesus replies, can remove mountains. Yet when you have done all that is commanded, say, "We are useless servants."
