

A Resolution support Faith

Committee: Social and Economic Justice Resolution: SEJ-20-03

- 1. WHEREAS, More than 300 incidents of harassment or intimidation on a religious bias
- 2. were reported within two days of the 2016 election.
- 3. WHEREAS, The surge of workplace discrimination complaints based on religious bias
- 4. after the 2016 election are comparable to those after 9/11.
- 5. WHEREAS, Donald Trump has signed an executive order to allow and protect
- 6. healthcare services based upon their religious beliefs and allows healthcare workers to
- 7. refuse to refer patients to someone who will provide it.
- 8. WHEREAS, The Supreme Court has said the federal government may limit religious
- 9. freedom but only when it has "compelling interest" to do so in order to protect the
- 10. common good and limit people's ability to do harm.
- 11. WHEREAS, The Precarious Moment by James Garlow and David Barton admit that
- 12. white christians, notably pastors used the bible to defend brutal torture of African
- 13. Americans.
- 14. WHEREAS, In 2015 Trump campaigned to ban all "Muslims entering the state until our
- 15. countries representatives can figure out what is going on." which exemplified a direct
- 16. threat of religious freedoms to muslims throughout the United States.

- 17. WHEREAS, Nearly 79% of African Americans identify as christian.
- 18. WHEREAS, Religious institutions have long been important sites for public health
- 19. interventions. The relationship between public health and faith communities is a
- 20. partnership in which the central mission of faith is respected.
- 21. WHEREAS, John Lewis explains that many people became heavily involved with the
- 22. civil rights movement because they viewed their engagements as an extension of their
- 23. faith.
- 24. THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that NOBEL Women supports eliminating all
- 25. religious bias and discrimination, freedom of religion and proper policing procedure in
- 26. religious bias.

Introduced by The Honorable Raumesh Akbari

Tennessee General Assembly