

Augustana News

June 2025

Dear Friends in Christ,

I am thrilled to have officially begun work as your pastor. Can you tell?! I can't count the number of times I've caught myself saying, "I'm so happy to be here!" in the past days, and it is true. I am so happy to serve as your pastor. I am also so grateful for your warm welcome of my family and me. We feel the love! Your understanding as all of us adjust to two new places with their own communities, buildings, and traditions is so appreciated. We are glad to make our new church home with you.

We have certainly hit the ground running, haven't we? Hospital visits, funerals, council meetings, worship, and more! It is a lot of work, but it is work which I enjoy and which I feel called to do.

It is also work that I feel very well supported in—by all of you! Your offers to assist, your patience with questions, the vibrant ministries to which you are all committed and in which you continue to serve...each of these is a sign of God's Spirit at work in this place. As I preached on my first Sunday with you, the Spirit that Jesus promised to send, that accompanied Paul and Silas in their travels, that met them in the people they encountered like Lydia, it is alive and active and at work in each of you. There are so many signs of God's faithfulness to you over the past 150+ years, and to your faithfulness to God's good work in the world too.

I believe we are going to continue to feel the Holy Spirit move this summer! June 8 we celebrate the ancient church holiday of Pentecost, commemorating the first arrival of the Holy Spirit and listening for the ways she continues to speak to us. Throughout the summer, we'll continue discerning the Spirit's guidance. We'll see how the Spirit blows through our worship and our lives. We'll expect the Spirit's arrival in unusual places. We'll train our ears to listen for the Spirit's voice. With some of our usual ministries on summer hiatus, it is the perfect chance for us to take intentional time to listen for God's direction. I'll make time to get to know you, learn more about our ministries, and consider what our future together holds.

We will have an important chance to gather all together on June 28, to celebrate my official installation as the pastor of Augustana and Grace with Bishop Tim Graham. It will be an exciting day that will involve both of our church buildings and congregations. Details are still in the works, so stay tuned.

I pray that the summer months also give you time for reflection and refreshment in your life. Spend more time outdoors, spend less time on screens, sit in a few moments of quiet presence with God to start or end your day, pick up a new practice of prayer or journaling, reconnect with a church friend over a meal. Use the long days to add more meaning and joy into your life—not more busyness! I promise, despite all that’s on my ever-growing to do list, I’ll try to do the same.

Let’s see where the Spirit takes us this summer!

In Peace,

~ Pastor Emily

Special Announcement

Augustana and Grace have many ministries, groups, and committees that keep us going, and Pastor Emily is trying to learn about it all! If you are involved in a ministry or group that you think Pastor Emily should know about, please extend an invitation for her to attend. There's a lot to learn, and this will help her navigate the many commitments on our church calendars.

Thanks!

A Joyful 'toon by Mike Waters

He decreed statutes for Jacob and established the law in Israel, which he commanded our forefathers to teach their children, so the next generation would know them, even the children yet to be born, and they in turn would tell their children.

God's Gifts Pantry ~
A Story Worth Sharing &
Thank You
2nd & 4th Thursdays ~ 10-11 AM

In the beginning, when we started God's Gifts Ministry, we would fill grocery sacks with self food and take them to the cars of those who came. On one of our Thursdays, a lady got out of her car and started crying, she said that she never had to ask for food. Her husband had lost his job. I hugged her and said, "Things would get better." The next time we had the food give-away, she came and asked for prayers for her husband who had an interview that day. The next time she came, her husband was hired and she had found a part-time job. We were all thrilled for them. When she left, she gave us all hugs and said, "I'm not going to come anymore, others need the food more than we do."

We (The Girls) would like to thank all who have donated food and monetary gifts for this beautiful ministry!

Many heartfelt thanks goes out for the following:

- ◆ Financial support for an individual member
 - ◆ Attending the lunch sponsored by Mosaic (Kathy Miller's residence)
 - ◆ Helping with Sister Nora's Farewell Celebration before, during, and after the event
- You know whom you are and these things would not have been possible without you!

Dear Members and Friends of Augustana:

There are no words to express to you my sincere thanks and appreciation for all that you have done for me and meant to me throughout the years...and now...this wonderful Sunday Brunch with so many lovely cards (both from older members and from our youth), so many thoughtful gifts, kind words, so much fantastic food, the acrostic sign (I would agree with the second "S" in sister as stubborn is pretty accurate), the trivia was really fun yet somewhat scary as you showed how much you really know about me; and if that weren't way more than enough, there were several very generous gifts from the congregation.

I am seriously overwhelmed. I thank God so much for each of you. I have been so blessed to be here among you; and I am definitely a better person and hopefully a more faithful minister of Word and Service because of all that you have taught me.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart for your love and care and for all your prayers. I will continue to hold each of you, the Mission and Ministry of Augustana, and Pastor Emily in my prayers as you begin this new and exciting chapter in the life of God's church here on Kilbourn Street and beyond. May God bless you.

In Christ's service,
~ Sister Nora

Thank You
