

The Sixth Sunday after Pentecost

Augustana Lutheran Church

July 5, 2026

WELCOME TO WORSHIP!

We are so glad you joined us for worship today. Yes, we're talking to YOU! If you are new to our church, here are a few notes we hope help you feel at home.

- ALL ARE WELCOME in our faith community: Whether you were in church last Sunday, last year, or this is your very first time; no matter who you are or what your life experiences are; no matter your background, address, age, or income. We're glad you're here!
- In our Lutheran tradition, it's all about grace! Everything begins with the freely given gift of God's love for us and for all creation. We hope you find that reflected in our worship and preaching today.
- In our Lutheran tradition, we think a lot about the words we use for and with God, and we tend to use a lot of words in worship. You are invited to participate by joining us in saying any part printed in bold and singing. Sit/stand where indicated if it's comfortable for your body.
- Please do not feel obliged to make an offering as a visitor. If you would like to give anyway, you can do so by putting your contribution in the offering plate or giving electronically (see our announcements for instructions). We know that financial offerings are only one way people give back to God.
- Hymns can generally be found in the red hymnal in your pew, listed by number. Hymns are printed for you in large print bulletins.
- All are welcome at the table of Holy Communion. If you have questions, please don't hesitate to speak with our pastor before or after worship.
- If you are new to us, and are so inclined, we would love to have your contact information. Please fill out one of the visitor cards found in our pew and put it in the offering plate. We promise not to spam you!
- Our church isn't open only on Sunday mornings! See the announcements for a hint of everything going on.

Please note: There will be no July Newsletter! We are taking some extra time this summer to work on migrating our newsletter to a new format. The software we previously used is being discontinued. Watch your July bulletin announcements and email closely for any reminders and updates this month. Please submit all articles for the August newsletter ASAP and no later than July 15 to give us time to work in the new program. Thank you!

It's not too late to join our Wednesday evening Bible Study! Join us for the second bible study of our year of study, as we read along with the TV series, The Chosen. We are so grateful that Pastor Ken Peterson will be with us to lead this study. We will gather at Grace in the Luther Room on Wednesday evenings from 6:30-7:45 PM, July 1-August 19. Talk to Pastor Emily if you'd like to join.

God's Gifts Pantry Update: With summer here, I felt it was time to give an update about the people we are helping. The number is growing! June 11 we had 28 visitors, 117 fed. June 25 we had 40 visitors, 147 fed. All we ask is how many are in their household. We are blessed being able to visit the Milford Food Bank. We purchase items there for 5 cents a pound. The average that we bring back is 600 lbs! Gyntown Food Bank in Elkhart is another resource. They carry different items and our cost is nothing. With cash donations, other items are purchased. Each month in our newsletter, we have a shopping list of items we need. Please refer to that. Dollar General has a great aisle of items that are only $1! A few items that we run out of include toilet paper, feminine hygiene products, and Ensure type drinks. We can always use 8 oz packages of shredded cheese, light bulbs, and manual can openers. If you have household items you think someone might need, give me a call. I can't forget to mention a few angels in the neighborhood who donate items. Two of them sale shop and drop off their finds, another knits hats in the winter and dish cloths now. She sits with her bedridden husband watching TV – it gives her something to do. Thank you to our Augustana family for your continued support of our pantry. – Janet

INTRODUCTION TO THE DAY

The mystery of God's ways is sometimes hidden from the wise and intelligent. The prophet describes an everlasting realm that contrasts with earthly nations, one marked by peace, humility, and freedom. Jesus associates with those often excluded from the religious community. We gather around word, water, and meal by Christ's invitation: "Come to me, all you that are weary." Here we find rest for our souls and hope for life in beloved community.

+ GATHERING +

The Holy Spirit calls us together as the people of God.

GATHERING MUSIC – ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcome to our year of listening!

At Augustana Lutheran Church we have begun a year of listening stretching from May 2026 to May 2027. During this year we are taking intentional time to listen more closely to the voices of God, one another, and our neighbors.

In worship, this means spending time in quiet as we begin to center ourselves and prepare to listen for God's voice. We will start with song, sit in silence, then be called to worship by the singing bowl (an instrument of prayer and meditation). Of course, during this time we anticipate some noise and wiggling from little ones. This is not a problem. We know that some are more comfortable with silence than others, and this experience will stretch all of us. If you need guidance to begin, consider placing both feet firmly on the floor, gently closing your eyes, and taking long, deep breaths. You may also choose a word (such as a name for God) to return to during the time of quiet whenever your mind begins to wander to other things.

You are invited to sing in dialog with the leader:

All Who Are Thirsty

The musical score is written on three staves in G major (one sharp). The first staff is for the 'Leader' and the second and third are for 'All'. The lyrics are: 'All who are thirst - y, come to the wa-ters. All who are hun - gry, come here and eat. All who are thirst - y, come to the wa-ters. There's e - nough for all.' The score includes a repeat sign after the first line of music.

Leader All

All who are thirst - y, come to the wa-ters. All who are hun - gry, come here and eat. All who are thirst - y, come to the wa-ters. There's e - nough for all.

Text: Brian Wentzel, b. 1979

We sit together into an extended moment of silence. The singing bowl calls us to worship.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

You are invited to stand as you are comfortable, and to face our baptismal font.

P. Blessed be the Holy Trinity, ✠ one God, source of hope in every nation,
rest for the weary,
glory and peace to the ends of the earth.

C. Amen.

P. Let us confess our sin
in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence is kept for reflection.

- P. Most merciful God,
- C. we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.
- P. By water and the Holy Spirit God gives you a new birth, and through the death and resurrection of  Jesus Christ, God forgives you all your sins. The God of mercy and might strengthen you in all goodness and keep you in eternal life.
- C. Amen.

+ WORD +

God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song.

FIRST READING – Zechariah 9:9-12

*The coming messianic king will inaugurate an era of disarmament and prosperity.
Because of God's covenant with Israel, the people are designated as "prisoners of hope."*

A. A reading from Zechariah.

⁹ Rejoice greatly, O daughter Zion!

Shout aloud, O daughter Jerusalem!

See, your king comes to you;

triumphant and victorious is he,

humble and riding on a donkey,

on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

¹⁰ He will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the war horse from Jerusalem;

and the battle bow shall be cut off,

and he shall command peace to the nations;

his dominion shall be from sea to sea and from the River to the ends of the earth.

¹¹ As for you also, because of the blood of my covenant with you,
I will set your prisoners free from the waterless pit.

¹² Return to your stronghold, O prisoners of hope;
today I declare that I will restore to you double.

A. Word of God, word of life.

C. Thanks be to God.

PSALM – Psalm 145:8-14

The psalm for the day is read responsively, with the congregation reading bold text.

⁸ The LORD is gracious and full of compassion, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

⁹ LORD, you are good to all,
and your compassion is over all your works.

¹⁰ All your works shall praise you, O LORD,
and your faithful ones shall bless you.

¹¹ They shall tell of the glory of your kingdom
and speak of your power,

¹² that all people may know of your power
and the glorious splendor of your kingdom.

¹³ Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom;
your dominion endures throughout all ages.
You, LORD, are faithful in all your words,
and loving in all your works.

¹⁴ The Lord upholds all those who fall and lifts up those who are bowed down.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

You are invited to stand as comfortable and to sing to welcome the gospel.

GOSPEL – Matthew 11: 16-19, 25-30

Jesus chides people who find fault with both his ministry and that of John the Baptist. He thanks God that wisdom and intelligence are not needed to receive what God has to offer.

P. The holy gospel according to Matthew.

C. Glory to you, O Lord.

P. Jesus spoke to the crowd saying: ¹⁶ “To what will I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces and calling to one another, ¹⁷ ‘We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we wailed, and you did not mourn.’

¹⁸ “For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, ‘He has a demon’; ¹⁹ the Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, ‘Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ Yet wisdom is vindicated by her deeds.”

²⁵ At that time Jesus said, “I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants;

²⁶ yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. ²⁷ All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. ²⁸ “Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. ²⁹ Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. ³⁰ For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

P. The gospel of the Lord.

C. Praise to you, O Christ.

Please be seated.

CHILDREN’S MESSAGE

Children are invited to come to the first pew for a teaching moment especially for them.

SERMON

HYMN OF THE DAY – This Is My Song

(ELW 887)

You are invited to stand as you are comfortable and sing.

This Is My Song

1 This is my song, O God of all the na - tions,
2 My coun - try's skies are blu - er than the o - cean,
3 This is my prayer, O God of all earth's king - doms,

a song of peace for lands a - far and mine.
and sun - light beams on clo - ver - leaf and pine.
your king - dom come; on earth your will be done.

This is my home, the coun - try where my heart is;
But oth - er lands have sun - light too, and clo - ver,
O God, be lift - ed up till all shall serve you,

here are my hopes, my dreams, my ho - ly shrine;
and skies are ev - 'ry - where as blue as mine.
and hearts u - nit - ed learn to live as one.

but oth - er hearts in oth - er lands are beat - ing
So hear my song, O God of all the na - tions,
So hear my prayer, O God of all the na - tions;

with hopes and dreams as true and high as mine.
a song of peace for their land and for mine.
my - self I give you; let your will be done.

APOSTLES' CREED

A. With the whole church, we confess our faith:

C. I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

A. Trusting in God's steadfast love for all God has made, let us pray for the church, the world, and all of creation.

we entrust our restless hearts and all our cares,
through Jesus Christ, our Savior.

C. Amen.
