Greetings in Christ,

Pastor's Page

"The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit." - John 3:8

As we journey into this summer, I continue to do my best to listen, see, pray, and discern for the movement of the Spirit in our midst – and I see that she is absolutely blowing. We cry out, "Come Holy Spirit! Flame on!" As we watch for the places where flames and movement are arising, it often times invites us to move quickly.

I'm grateful for the leadership of both congregations as we realized the two services this summer weren't really working or faithful to who we've been called to be. Therefore, as you will hear and read at other places in this newsletter, we'll be moving to one worship service at 9:00am beginning July 7th at Augustana, switching over to Grace for the month of August.

I know that these schedule changes can make you feel like you're being flung to and fro, which is not much fun. However, I'm grateful that we are in a place where we can respond and act. In addition to the worship schedule changes, we are also going to have three weeks of conversation after worship the first 3 weeks of July. I hope that you will engage at least one of these gatherings, so that we can get everyone on the same page with where things have been, where things are, and what next steps might look like as we go forward, discerning God's calling for us as Grace and Augustana.

This month, I celebrate my 5th anniversary of ordination and I'm grateful for the ways that the people of both communities of faith have welcomed me these past 5 years. I'm also looking forward to our ministry together. None of us knows exactly what comes around the bend, but I'm grateful for your faithfulness to the process and your willingness to engage.

Thank you for being a part of the journey,

Pastor Dan

Excess Baggage

In the last century, a tourist from America paid a visit to a renowned Polish rabbi, Hofetz Chaim. He was astonished to see that the rabbi's home was only a simple room filled with books, plus a table and bench.

"Rabbi," asked the tourist, "where is your furniture?"

"Where is yours?" replied Hofetz Chaim.

"Mine?" asked the puzzled American. "But, I'm only a visitor here. I'm only passing through."

"So am I," said the rabbi.

Experienced travelers learn how much baggage is just enough. They take what they need and leave behind the non-essentials that would only be a burden. To move freely, they travel light. Visitor, traveler, pilgrim - whatever word we use - each one of us is only "passing through."

How we go through life depends a lot on what each of us decides is essential in the things we own, the attachments we form, the ideas that shape our lives.

More and more people say they'd like to make changes in the way they live. Louis Harris commented that we may be coming to the point "where accumulation of physical possessions and steadily increasing consumption would no longer be as central to people's concerns...This would mark a striking turn-around in the country's thinking."

But any major change in the way we live is going to require decisions by millions of individuals, in their personal and public lives, in answer to the question: "How do I want to travel?"

On a personal level, questions like these may be helpful to anyone who is serious about finding out what to hold onto and what to let go:

*What possessions do I have that cause more trouble and worry than they're worth?

*Do I weight myself down by longing for more than I need or can afford?

*Do I waste valuable time and energy on things that don't really matter?

*Does the desire for "bigger, better, more" crowd out the values of intimacy, communication and the giving of affection?

*Do I feel good about my work, the persons in my life, myself.

*If I had only three months to live, what would I let go of and what would I hold on to?

Where God is doing new things

July 2019

Meeting in West Lafayette, Indiana, at the Purdue Memorial Union at Purdue University under the theme "Who is My Neighbor?," this year's Synod Assembly provided ample opportunity for worship, learning, fellowship, service, and for attending to the business of the synod.

Meeting May 31 – June 2, 2019, there were 3 keynote speakers. Pastor Tim Taylor currently serves as Pastor of Grace Lutheran Church in Raleigh, NC. Pastor Taylor has led many workshops and spoken on the topic of diversity in our society. Pastor Sharon Taylor has more than thirty years of experience in youth ministry, including working at Beisler Camping and Retreat Center where she met her husband Pastor Tim Taylor. She currently serves as Senior Pastor at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church in Raleigh, NC. She and her husband led diversity training for the volunteers at this past summer's ELCA Youth Gathering in Houston. Pastor Mandy France serves as a solo pastor at Our Savior's Lutheran in Bird Island, MN. While at Luther Seminary she took several classes on interfaith relations during her studies at Luther and formed her pastoral internship project around Christian and Muslim dialogue. Her project, Love Thy Neighbor, gained national attention and was featured in the Washington Post and on Katie Couric's series "America Inside Out."

Judith Roberts was our Churchwide Representative and presented the ELCA Churchwide Report to the Assembly. Judith serves as ELCA Program Director for Racial Justice. The work of the ELCA Racial Justice ministries educates, equips and engages leaders to analyze the systems of racism and identify solutions that create equitable outcomes within and outside of the ELCA. We heard about the work of the churchwide expression of the church and learned about the ways in which we are called to live out our baptismal identities.

Rachel Kurtz served as the musician for this year's Assembly. Rachel shared the ways that God is at work in her life through her music and through stories.

High school students and adult faith mentors participated in the Youth Leadership Summit held in conjunction with Synod Assembly. Students heard from our Assembly keynote speakers as well as from Rachel Kurtz. In addition to leadership development activities, students also helped lead the Opening Eucharist and Sunday morning's Sending Eucharist.

The Opening Eucharist featured a variety of musical styles. Rachel Kurtz lead portions of the service. Thomas Dearchs and David White served as Directors of Music. A woodwind trio, bass guitar, guitar, saxophone, conga drums, and Assembly Choir added to the festival sound. Participants from the Youth Leadership Summit, held in conjunction with Synod Assembly, led the procession. The Rev. Dr. Donald K. Gillett II, Executive Director of the Kentucky Council of Churches preached a powerful sermon. On Saturday evening we prayed Evening Prayer and had a time of Remembrance of the Faithful Departed. The Sending Eucharist also featured a variety of musical styles. Cory Thomas Pechan Driver and Travis Woodfield were Consecrated to the Ministry of Word and Service. It was a very festive service!

For the second year in a row, there were 7 Affinity Groups, an open-space time, where those in attendance had the opportunity to learn from one another. "It was a great time of sharing and discussion, thank you!" is how one participant described the experience. Twelve different workshops were offered on Saturday afternoon. Topics ranged from Love Thy Neighbor!, led by Pastor Mandy France, to the Opioid Crisis in America, led by Kal William Rissman.

A highlight for many was the screening of "Won't You Be My Neighbor?", a 2018 American documentary film directed by Morgan Neville about the life and guiding philosophy of Fred Rogers, the host and creator of Mister Rogers' Neighborhood.

The offering collected on Friday evening and designated for the ACE Food Pantry totaled $2778.91 and the offering collected on Sunday morning and designated for HKBP Disaster Relief totaled $2461.10. The Assembly also adopted the Synod Budget for 2020-2021 and elected persons to serve on Synod Council and several Synod committees.

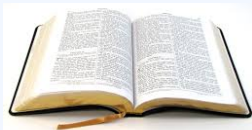

MissionFest provided a venue to learn more about a variety of ministries of the synod, ELCA, and within our mission territory.

Road Trip:
Shrine of Christ's Passion
Saturday, August 10th from 8AM - 7PM

Rain Date for Road Trip

We have had to reschedule our road trip to the Shrine of Christ's Passion twice due to rain and storms. We are praying that this third time will be a day filled with sunshine, blue skies and warm weather.

If you remember. This prayer trail is set on 30 acres. There are plenty of places to sit along the way. At each depiction of Christ's Passion (40 bronze life size statues) there is an audio presentation. It is free of charge and non-denominational.

There is also a new Moses at Mount Sinai and the 10 commandments depiction. This is with a complete mountain which took 160n semis full f boulders, clay and dirt and three years of constant work to complete.

For those who like to shop until you drop....there is a 10,000 sq. ft. Gift shop. Along with inspiring religious items they also have a wide array of distinctive gifts, a gallery filled with incredible art work, jewelry, accessories, and gifts for all occasions. The upstairs houses Christmas collectables including an amazing display of nativity sets by Fontaninni.

Sign up at both churches.

You Asked For It -- You've Got It...

You have to love a nation that celebrates its independence every July 4, not with a parade of guns, tanks, and soldiers who file by the White House in a show of strength and muscle, but with family picnics where kids throw Frisbees, the potato salad gets iffy, and the flies die from happiness. You may think you have overeaten, but it is patriotism. ~Erma Bombeck

Giggles

Day after day the atheist college professor would taunt his students with the same question. "Have you ever seen God??" Three times he asked. When no one dared answer, he always concluded, "Well, it is quite obvious there is no God."

One day a Christian student had had enough.

The girl said to the class, "Have you ever seen our professor's brain?" Three times she asked it. When no one answered, she concluded, "Well, it is quite obvious that our professor has no brain."

Monday Night Meals News

To our Augustana family,

It is June and that means our Monday Night Meal program has completed 10 full years of service to those in need of a meal and kindness. It has been a blessing and honor for us. Thanks be to God, our dedicated workers, and our Augustana family for their support, prayers, and assistance (manual labor and financially).

Unlike other programs we have had only one time when we had to ask someone to leave (that person came back and was here for several years). This has been made possible by our volunteers who make everyone welcome, treat all with dignity and respect, and get to know them well enough to notice if someone is missing. Likewise our guests notice when any of our workers are not there. Both groups check to see if those missing are okay.

Again this has been a blessing and a privilege. At this time we are feeling ten years older and need to have someone else take over the program or we will need to close the meal service to end of July. If any one is interested in continuing the program we will be available for getting you started.

There are possibilities for people to commit to specific times and not have to be there every week. If interested, one of us will be in the fellowship hall after worship on Sundays in June to answer any questions.

Thank you again for allowing us to have had a successful ten years,

Bonnie Rice and Chris Mills

The Women of the ELCA are once again collecting bras for women who are making a living refurbishing and reselling bras through 'Free the Girls.' In the past they have helped young women in Chicago and Malawi. We will learn about the impact these donations and 'Free the Girls' has made at the Women of the ELCA Fall Biennial Convention in Indianapolis on

Look for the donation box at Augustana and help support 'Free the Girls' and human trafficking survivors.
