Greetings in Christ,

"By the sweat of your face you shall eat bread until you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken; you are dust, and to dust you shall return." — Genesis 3:19

Ash Wednesday is on March 6th and begins the season of Lent – a time where we pause and reflect on our need for God, as we journey together towards the cross of Jesus. As we journey, we recognize the need to be together and to have friends and partners for the road ahead.

This year that idea of “journeying together” takes on a whole new meaning. As we continue to discern the new things that God is doing in Elkhart and how God is calling us to reach people with the love of Jesus, the councils of Augustana and Grace have decided to share worship together! For the first three weeks of Lent (March 10th to 24th), we will worship at 10:00am at Augustana. For the second three weeks of Lent (March 31st to April 14th), we will worship at 10:00am at Grace.

We have shared worship before and have found the services to be exciting and meaningful, yet we also notice that some do not come to the “other” church. If that has been you, I hope that you might use this Lent to try something new. If you are worried about mobility at Grace, there are working lifts and handicapped seating. If you are worried about the size of Augustana, we will have extra seating available and the choir will sing from the floor instead of the choir loft.

This experiment will allow us to see something different, while also getting to know some new people – so I really hope you give it a chance. As we continue to share more together, we always value your feedback. Feel free to share your observations and concerns with council members, Sister Nora, and me, so that we can hear from as many voices as possible.

Throughout this season of Lent, please know that I am grateful for your partnership and am grateful for your support and prayer. Let us journey to the cross together knowing God's love in new ways!

Sister Nora and Pastor Dan Teaming up for Pastoral Care

It has been so wonderful to have Sister Nora join the Pastoral Care team at Grace and Augustana! Sister Nora is the primary person for individuals who are in nursing homes or homebound. Pastor Dan is the primary person to contact for hospital visits. As a reminder, even if you tell the hospital that you are a member of Grace or Augustana, they do not contact us! So you need to call the church office or Pastor Dan to let them know that you are in the hospital. Pastor Dan can be reached on his cell phone at 574-742-2540. Sister Nora can be reached at 574-226-1412.

Second Fiddle

The conductor of a great symphony orchestra on tour was being interviewed by a young female reporter from the high school paper. She was a charming lass, with a great ambition to succeed, and no experience whatever with great artists.

"My editor would like to know," she began, with an evident effort to appear professional, "what instrument in the orchestra is the hardest to play."

Without a second's hesitation, the great musician replied, "A second fiddle! And it's that way with life too. It is always easy to find those who want to play solos. It is something else to find those who are willing to provide the harmony and the accompaniment."

Where God is doing new things

March 2019

"How many times does a person have to be converted?"

"As many days as one lives," was the immediate reply.

Two pastors are in deep conversation in the novel, The Hammer of God, first published in 1941 by the Swedish Lutheran bishop, Bo Giertz. The younger, Torvik, is struggling with both his faith and his ministry. The elder pastor, Olle, probes Torvik's spiritual life, especially his "conversion."

"Let me tell you, Olle," Torvik retorts, "I have been converted twice, and that should be enough. The first time was at college, the second as pastor here in Ödesjö. How many times does a person have to be converted?"

"As many days as one lives," was the immediate reply.

The elder pastor is channeling Martin Luther's reflection on baptism in the Small Catechism:

Baptism "signifies that the old person in us with all sins and evil desires is to be drowned and die through daily sorrow for sin and through repentance, and on the other hand that daily a new person is to come forth and rise up to live before God in righteousness and purity forever."

Daily dying and rising with Christ, that's the conversion to which we are called and to which the season of Lent beckons.

Unfortunately, our well-intentioned, sneakily insurgent tendency during Lent is to focus on ourselves: what we give up, what disciplines we engage, our failings, our sin, our spiritual gymnastics. These are important aspects of the Lenten sojourn, of course, but focus on ourselves cannot work the transformation, the conversion, that renders resurrection, the new, abundant, and lasting life that bursts from the tomb of Jesus. The gospel truth is that, try as we might, we cannot crucify ourselves or raise ourselves from the dead.

Lent and its disciplines are actually intended to turn our eyes not upon us, but upon Jesus, to borrow from an old hymn, to look full in his wonderful face. In the face of the crucified and risen Jesus, we see that God's specialty, God's chief work, is overcoming death with life, for us and for the world. This is why I love the counsel that the elder pastor, Olle, gives to Torvik, the younger, near the end of their conversation:

"Look in your Bible and see if the passages you have especially marked are not just those that speak of what you shall do. But you have not given half the attention to that which tells what Christ has done through his atonement." Torvik gave inward assent to that. It was true, completely true.

But he said nothing.

"We are in the midst of Lent, Brother," said the rector. "Read God's Word now as God's Word, without skipping anything. Underline heavily everything about what our Savior has done for us. And if you like, write 'For me' in the margin. You need this yourself, and it is your duty to preach it to your congregation, as well."

Now, there's a Lenten discipline for all the baptized, pastors and people alike!

LIVING YOUR BEST LIFE: LIVING INTO THE LITURGICAL YEAR

Every Sunday after Worship March 10th through April 14th

Thanks to everyone who filled out and ranked your educational preferences. Based on your responses we will hold the first class "Living Your Best Life: Living Into the Liturgical Year".

Beginning on Sunday, March 10th and continuing for six Sundays the class we meet following the 10AM worship service.

Life is made up of one year following another. We watch our lives go by, a phase, a stage, a year at a time and we mark the meaning of the year by the way we feel and spend our days. Unlike the civic year which begins on January 1st, the church year begins on the first Sunday of Advent. The Liturgical year is an adventure in bringing our Christian life to fullness, our heart to a deeper alertness, and our soul to a greater focus. We will not consider how to make a life but rather we will explore how to make a life.

As we study the liturgical year we begin to attune our Christian life with the Life of Christ. The liturgical year is an adventure in human growth, and an exercise in our spiritual strengthening. We will not only explore the major seasons and festivals of the church year as they developed in the past but will consider their place in our own spiritual development now in the present. It will also be about what takes to live a spiritual life as rich and meaningful in our day as it was for all those who came before us.

If you have questions, talk with Sister Nora.....if not, PLEASE PLAN TO ATTEND.

ADDITIONAL EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES COMING SOON

Catechism Refresher: Why am I a Lutheran Anyway will be held for six Wednesdays before worship at Grace beginning at 3:45 PM until the service which starts in the chapel at 4PM. We will explore such topics as God and His Son, Heaven and Hell, Faith and Belief, Sin and Forgiveness, Baptism, The Lord's Supper, Worship and the Scriptures. (April 24- May 29th)

Death, Heaven, Resurrection, and the New Creation will be held for six Thursday evening at 6:30 PM at Augustana. Everyone must deal with death. It is a reality we would rather not face – but it is a reality we need not fear, because Christ has conquered death. This Bible Study will invite you to consider death in the light of the promise of Christ. Beginning June 6th – July 18th (no class on July 4th)

Old Business:

New Business:

*Pastor Dan spoke with the council at length about the perspective interim and his expected job duties. He covered that an interview was to happen at the Grace council meeting on 2/18. Several Augustana members volunteered to come to that interview and a motion was raised to give those members the authorization to speak for the whole council on approval of this candidate. Bonnie Rice moved to accept the motion, Doris Koontz seconded, and a unanimous vote approved.

*Pastor Dan reminded everyone about the Council retreat on March 1st and 2nd that will be held at St. Paul's in Middlebury. He passed out the meeting agendas and questions to think about before the retreat.

*AJ Diller suggested getting congregation input before the council retreat. The council discussed the need for information and goals for consolidating the two churches to be shared more consistently with the congregation. Having council members give temple talks was discussed.

*Pastor Dan spoke about the 2019 IK Synod Assembly coming up May 31 through June 2 at Purdue University in West Lafayette. Augustana may send two voting members, one male and one female, to the assembly. The council asked Kathy to put in the bulletin and next newsletter a request for volunteers to attend. Registration fees increase after the early bird registration deadline, Saturday, March 30, 2019.

*Kathy Nowak noted that the 2018 invoice/2020 order form for the giving envelopes was received and asked if she could look into lowering the number of envelopes purchased because for 2019 there are approximately 40 envelope packets left over. The council asked what the quantity breakdown would be and the costs, and Kathy noted she would report back with information at the next council meeting. She then noted to Keith Johnson, new property liaison, several items that needed repair in the pastor's office and the sanctuary.

Bonnie Rice motioned to adjourn, Dee Smith seconded. A unanimous in favor carried.

Pastor Dan closed with devotions.

Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper -- March 5th
5:00-6:30pm at Grace

As we prepare for the beginning of the season of Lent, an old tradition invites us to “use the last of the fat.” So we make pancakes and sausages on the day before Ash Wednesday! Join us at Grace in the Fellowship Hall for a Shrove Tuesday Pancake and Sausage Supper from 5:00-6:30pm. A freewill offering will be collected, but all are welcome!

Please join us!

Midweek Lent Potluck and Worship

On the Wednesdays in Lent, we will gather for a potluck followed by worship. The potluck will begin at 6:00pm, with worship starting at 7:00pm. Bring a dish to share and we'll hope that we have a nice variety of food for all to enjoy! Our worship will be simple and contemplative as we share in the rite of healing each week and gather to pray for our friends and neighbors. We will sing a few hymns, share communion, and hear Scripture, in addition to healing.

The Wednesdays will be at the opposite location of Sunday worship, but here is a schedule for you:

Wednesday, March 13th – Grace

Wednesday, March 20th – Grace

Wednesday, March 27th – Augustana

Wednesday, April 3rd – Augustana

Wednesday, April 10th - Augustana

Ash Wednesday Worship -- March 6th

Ash Wednesday begins the season of Lent and we have many opportunities for you to join us for worship. Please plan on attending and invite your friends!

12:00pm at Augustana – This is a quiet, simple gathering. We will share in confession, the imposition of ashes, and communion. Pastor Dan will preach a brief homily as we gather together to begin the season of Lent.

1:30-3:30pm at Grace – “Ashes to Go” moves to the afternoon this year. Pastor Dan will be in the parking lot offering ashes and prayer for individuals.

You are welcome to drive up and remain in your vehicle. This is good for people who have a full schedule or individuals who might not be able to get into the church.

7:00pm at Grace – At our evening gathering, we will sing hymns to remind us of our need for God, share in confession, imposition of ashes and communion. Pastor Dan will preach and we will mark the beginning of Lent.

Please join us at one of these worship opportunities as we begin the season of Lent together.

Sharing Worship at Grace and Augustana for Lent

The congregation councils and Worship and Music Teams have decided for Lent to share worship together! Instead of a service at Grace and then at Augustana, we will worship together. We will gather at a compromise time of 10:00am each Sunday. Please share this information with your friends and family so that all make it to the right place.

Sunday, March 10th – Augustana at 10:00am

-remember time changes at 2am on Sunday,
