

2 Corinthians 1:3

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort.

FATHER OF MERCIES

God is rich in mercy (Ephesians 2:4), and His mercy is renewed every day (Lamentations 3:22-23), implying that His mercy is unlimited. God's mercy can transform every aspect of a believer's life that needs transformation.

For instance, if a believer has health challenges or financial problems, God's mercy can turn the believer's situation around. His mercy is not one-sided; it is multi-dimensional and perfect. When the Father of mercy shows up in a person's life, He can restore any opportunities that they might have lost and make everything new again.

Even though God's mercies are unlimited, they are not accessible to everyone because God himself decides the people to whom He shows His mercy. The Bible says, “For He says to Moses, I will have mercy on whomever I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whomever I will have compassion. So then, it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God who shows mercy” (Romans 9:15-16). Before

God can dispense His mercy to a person, the person must acknowledge Him as their Father. While it is true that God causes the sun to shine on everyone, both good and bad (Matthew 5:45), your special relationship with Him, as a child of God, will give you access to His everlasting mercies.

All God's children have access to the full complement of His mercies. God's mercy is rich and multi-dimensional; however, you must accept God as your Father to enjoy them. To unbelievers, God is a consuming fire, but to the children of God, He is compassionate and slow to anger (Psalm 145:8). Beloved, if you are not yet born again, do not waste another minute outside the tender arms of the Father of mercies. He alone can give you a rich and fulfilling life and guarantee your place in His kingdom for all eternity. If you are already a child of God, live in obedience to His will, and He will shower you with His abundant mercies.

May the Lord bless His word in your heart. Please feel free to leave us a message at: info@talkgospel.org