BREWS OVER TEXAS
Inaugural Homebrew Competition Series

BRENHAM, TX, May 10 - The Zythological Society of North America, Texas Chapter will be hosting it's first Brews Over Texas, a series of Homebrew Competitions over the next year, culminating in a Grand Champion being crowned at Brenham Maifest 2022. After having to postpone the event last year we are happy to officially start this series.

There will be (4) four separate events that homebrewers will be able to enter and gain points depending on placing in each event. After the last event (Maifest), points will totalled from all (4) four and a Champion will be announced. The dates and sites of all competitions include:

July 10th – Brew S. Open - Brazos Valley Brewing (Brenham, TX.)

Sept./Oct. – Boot Scootin' Brews - TBD

Dec. 11 – Brewmite – Battle of the Bartenders (Brenham, TX.)

May 7th , 2022 – Meister von Bier - Brenham Maifest (Brenham, TX.)

You can find entry forms and contest rules on our website www.zythological.com. The Zythological Society of North American welcomes all homebrewers to enter and enjoy a friendly competition that spreads the word of American homebrewers.

The Zythological Society of North America, Texas Chapter is an organization that was established in 2015, made up of beer brewers, beer-aficionados, and beer lovers who meet monthly for the responsible discussion and enjoyment of...beer. Cheers!
