June 17, 2019

Dear Community Supporter,

This year the Eufaula Barbour County Chamber will be hosting our 41st autumn festival. For years, this event has been known as the Indian Summer Festival. This year, we are looking to “return to our roots” by offering our community and region an arts and crafts festival that will be known as EufaulaFest. Partnering with the Eufaula Art Scene, the Chamber is excited to bring artisans, craftsmen and makers of great things back to the tree lined median of Randolph Avenue in the Irwinton and Seth Lore Historic District October 12 & 13, 2019. Ours will be an adjudicated festival that will showcase painting, photography, pottery, sculpture, ironworks, hand-made jewelry, hand-made furniture and accessories, along with many other offerings. Additionally, we will add a category this year to incorporate items that are “Made in the South” like home-made soaps, jellies & jams, honey, bread, etc. For our artisans, we will be providing an opening day breakfast and closing dinner, along with welcome bags complete with snacks. Ribbons, tee shirts, etc. Cash awards will be presented to artists in the following categories: Best of Show, two Awards of Distinction, and twelve Merit Awards. Our award winners will also receive an automatic invitation to return to EufaulaFest 2020.

To help us in offsetting the cost of our festival, the Chamber is seeking business and industry sponsors from our area. Our festival would greatly appreciate your support and commitment to a sponsorship level that will assist in meeting the above-mentioned financial requirements associated in hosting such a large festival. All sponsors will receive acknowledgement in our local newspaper, signage at the festival, and through our digital media and Chamber Connections newsletters. In addition, platinum level sponsors will also receive logo acknowledgement on all festival promotional materials, including vendor bags, shirts, regional advertising and digital billboard marketing. Sponsorship levels are as follows:

Platinum Level Sponsorship:	$1,500
Gold Level Sponsorship:	$1,000
Silver Level Sponsorship:	$ 750
Bronze Level Sponsorship:	$ 500
In Kind Sponsorship:	$ 250

Please find attached a sponsorship form to be completed and returned to us, along with your sponsorship payment, to:

Respectfully,
