

Part II: Message to the body of Christ:

Carefully watch the souls who are connected to you:

The Holy Spirit dropped the word “bamboozled” in my spirit weeks ago. I knew this word had a meaning for a “right now” message because I kept hearing it. God spoke about being aware of this bamboozled spirit being on the loose. God dealt with me this year when I wrote the first message to the body of Christ. Here are the words that came in as a warning from the original message: “The Lord is revealing the secrets in the hearts of people we are connected to—even family members. Don’t find it strange if you discover certain family members are against you.” God is revealing the hearts of those who are close to or connected to us. Just because someone has been faithfully connected to you for years or months—or even by kinship—doesn’t mean they don’t have any open doors that can’t be used against you. A sign of an open door is when you become aware that a person does not read the Bible or does not even spend time with God. This is a dangerous threat to their soul and yours. Also, they can hear the Word but don’t apply it in their hearts. Many are playing church and have no desire to repent (change of heart; turn from their way). If one does not apply the Truth in their heart, they are going to operate with the characteristics of the devil and have no conviction to change. In their eyes, they are living right. And one of these characteristics they can display is bamboozlement. Because of their side of darkness, for their personal gain, they could set a trap to cheat, fool, or deceive you in some way. You must watch the soul of a person around you, because they are a danger to you and others if they are not applying the Word to their hearts and spending time with God.

Let’s pray:

Father, show us the hearts of those connected to us. I remove their hidden agendas now if they are workers of iniquity—because of open doors that haven’t been addressed. I cancel the devil’s plans to hinder and stop my advancement in your Kingdom now! Anyone who has no desire to change and is on assignment to bamboozle me in your Kingdom, I repudiate and destroy their plans immediately! All things work together for my good. I will always be alerted to know what the adversary is planning, so I can boldly and authoritatively overturn them in my favor!
