

BASEBALL FUTURE PLAYERS FOR AGES 5-8 BOYS AND GIRLS

Future players is an instructional program coached by Erik Lazerus, drafted by the Los Angeles Dodgers, and former minor league ball player. Future Players focuses on the fundamental skills needed to be successful in baseball, while creating a fun environment that will help your child foster a real love for the game. Basics such as throwing, catching, hitting, fielding, sliding and base running are the core of the curriculum. Our classes will build confidence, while recognizing the importance of teamwork, cooperation and helping others.
