500 South Main, Sioux Falls, SD 57104-6814
October 10, 2021

(605) 336-3486
The Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

Welcome to our service. Episcopalians are a community of Faith united by a Prayer Book and a Hymnal. Bold items are hymns from the Hymnals found in your pew racks. Special service music, found in the front of the Hymnal, is identified with a bold capital S, with the words also printed in our Prayer Book. Selected prayers and praise are found in our red Books of Common Prayer, or BCP in the service menu, conveniently located in the pew racks for your use. God bless your worship with us.

HOLY EUCHARIST (Rite II) 10:00 a.m.

Collect

Lord, we pray that your grace may always precede and follow us, that we may continually be given to good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Job 23:1-9, 16-17

Job said:

"Today also my complaint is bitter;
his hand is heavy despite my groaning.

Oh, that I knew where I might find him,
that I might come even to his dwelling!

I would lay my case before him,
and fill my mouth with arguments.

I would learn what he would answer me,
and understand what he would say to me.

Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power?
No; but he would give heed to me.

There an upright person could reason with him,
and I should be acquitted forever by my judge.

"If I go forward, he is not there;
or backward, I cannot perceive him;

on the left he hides, and I cannot behold him;
I turn to the right, but I cannot see him.

God has made my heart faint;
the Almighty has terrified me;

If only I could vanish in darkness,
and thick darkness would cover my face!"

Psalm 22:1-15

- 1 My God, my God, why have you for/saken me? *
and are so far from my cry
and from the words of my dis/tress?
- 2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not /answer; *
by night as well, but I find no /rest.
- 3 Yet you are the /Holy One, *
enthroned upon the praises of /Israel.
- 4 Our forefathers put their trust in /you; *
they trusted, and you delivered them.
- 5 They cried out to you and were de/livered; *
they trusted in you and were not put to /shame.
- 6 But as for me, I am a worm and no /man, *
scorned by all and despised by the /people.
- 7 All who see me laugh me to /scorn; *
they curl their lips and wag their heads, /saying,
- 8 "He trusted in the Lord; let him de/liver him; *
let him rescue him, if he de/lights in him."
- 9 Yet you are he who took me out of the /womb, *
and kept me safe upon my mother's /breast.
- 10 I have been entrusted to you ever since I was /born; *
you were my God when I was still in my mother's /womb.

© 1979, Robert Knox Kennedy.

11 Be not far from me, for trouble is /near, *
and there is none to /help.

12 Many young bulls en/circle me; *
strong bulls of Bashan sur/round me.

13 They open wide their /jaws at me, *
like a ravening and a roaring /lion.

14 I am poured out like water; all my bones are out of /joint; *
my heart within my breast is melting /wax.

*15 My mouth is dried out like a pot-sherd; my tongue sticks to the roof of my /mouth; *
and you have laid me in the dust of the /grave.

*repeat last half of chant

Hebrews 4:12-16

The word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account. Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Mark 10:17-31

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: ‘You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honor your father and mother.’” He said to him, “Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.” Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, “You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.” When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions. Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!” And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.” They were greatly astounded and said to one another, “Then who can be saved?” Jesus looked at them and said, “For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.” Peter began to say to him, “Look, we have left everything and followed you.” Jesus said, “Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.”
