

Blissymbolics

was

invented

and

published

after

World War II

to serve

the need

for better

international

communication

Then

in 1971

Shirley McNaughton

of

Toronto

Canada

began

using

Blissymbolics

to help

children

and

adults

with

communication

disorders

due to

Cerebral Palsy

