

POINDEXTER VILLAGE MUSEUM & CULTURAL LEARNING CENTER

ORAL HISTORY INTERVIEWS

Purpose of Poindexter Village Oral History Interviews:

- To document who we are in the present and what we remember about the past.
- Discover community history and preserve unwritten history large and small.
- Lift up stories of individuals who helped create the fabric of history.
- Protect stories and preserve the legacies for future generations.

As an interviewee, you will be asked to:

- Share personal stories that you yourself have witnessed.
- Be filmed and interviewed in-person. No more than one guest if needed.
- Have your photo taken. You must sign off on a media consent form before the interview.
- We invite you to share artifacts, pictures, or memories related to the legacy of Poindexter and the near east side. Optional

Anticipated Filming Schedule:

- Interviews hosted by Ohio History Connection are appointment only.
- Actual interviews will take approximately 1.5 hours.
- We ask that you plan to be on-site 15 minutes before to complete paperwork.

Share Artifacts and Pictures: Someone from the Collection Team will be on site during your interview to assist with digitizing photos and assessing shared artifacts. Interviewee's shared items will be digitized, photographed, microfilmed, scanned or copied by OHC and return by the end of the interview appointment.

Things You Should Know:

- Someone will follow-up with you to schedule a day and time of filmed interview.
- Please wear a mask. Before and after the interview we ask that you wear your mask.
- No shiny attire. Please do not wear a black top or logos on your shirt.
- Before we begin you will complete and sign project media consent forms.
- Videos will be posted on Ohio Memory media pages. Interviews may be shared by community partners, posted on YouTube, and/or used for Poindexter Village Project documentary. Check out <https://ohiomemory.org>

Interview Location:

Ohio History Connection
The Arthur C. Johnson Auditorium
800 E. 17th Ave. Columbus, Ohio 43211

Off-site interviews are available by appointment.
