To Whom It May Concern,

On behalf of The Bond Family, I write in support of Mr. Alisdair Robertson in his request to use artwork created by our late relative, Uncle Mertil Cecil Bond aka "Doodie", for the use as logo for Native Tracker.

We acknowledge that Uncle Doodie's artwork carries cultural, family, and community significance. As custodians of his legacy, The Bond Family provides our support for Alisdair to use the nominated artwork image, pending the development and signing of a formal agreement between all parties.

It is our firm belief that:

1. A formal written agreement must be established to protect the integrity, ownership, and respectful use of the artwork.
2. Any ongoing or future use of the image should include consultation and agreement with the Woorabinda Community, recognising the shared cultural responsibilities and connection.
3. This letter serves only as an interim understanding between The Bond Family and Alisdair Robertson and does not replace or diminish the need for a full and binding agreement.

We look forward to working together to ensure that Uncle Doodie's artwork is honoured and safeguarded in a culturally respectful and legally sound way.

Kind regards,

Christina Collier-Bond,
