LONDENN AND BNB FAMILY

WOW!

One month down already!

Time surely passes fast when you're having fun, and I'm having a blast. This month has been filled with so much pageantry and DREAMS!

I started the month off in Fort Smith, Arkansas where I was selected to be a judge for Miss Gay Diamond America. The regional had five contestants and the victory went to Claire Annette and 1st Alt placement to Laronna Weathers. Congratulations ladies, I'm looking forward to seeing you all compete in January for MGA! Some highlights of the weekend were being in the company of 4 MGA's Dextaci, Dessie, Ivy and meeting for the first time Patti LePlae Safe. Seeing an old MGA classmate from the 2010 class, Shawn Tyler Andrews, great seeing you and awesome job on your step down as MGDA and Happy 15th anniversary again as MGAA. Also, got to meet the legendary Coppa LeMay who was just the sweetest it was great meeting them in person and their personality was just as big and bright as their talents I've watched over the years.

There were also 5 Miss Gay Arkansas' in the building either helping, entertaining, supporting or competing such great sisterhood shown. THANKS AGAIN Janice Marie and Brooklyn Bisette for amazing experience and awesome job on the prelim! Left Arkansas knowing in my heart that sisterhood is alive and well in Gay America pageantry.

Next up was to Dallas to support and dress my bestie MGOA 2007 Lindsay on her quest to be Miss Gay USofA at Large and I'm proud to say she was victorious and we now have another national jewel back in the great state of Oklahoma. Great seeing my promoters there supporting as well as some other former MGOA legacy.

Returning back to Tulsa after my time in Dallas, I came home to the honor of hosting TULSA GAY PRIDE alongside my MGOA sisters Tracy LaLouisanne and Kiana Jade. Pride is always fun but this year it was an extra good time beating the heat in October and seeing the masses come out to support PRIDE as well as DRAG.

My main portion of hosting was concentrated on hosting the parade as well as hosting RuPaul Drag Race girlies which I got to meet and take photos with each. Thanks OKEQ for the opportunity and for letting femmes take their place in pride as well.

Next day we held Mr and Miss Oklahoma Bold and Beautiful. We had 7 contestants for the evening and that night the victors were Holland and Sasha D King. What a great night of pageantry and legacy. Thank you Tulsa and my OBB's for your continued support and love.

Rest of my month was spent doing Halloween shows, as most know Halloween isn't my favorite time of the year, but I still pushed through as you have to be versatile as an entertainer. I went to OKC for our monthly Supreme competition, traveled over to Tahlequah and even played Lisle von Rhuman in a parody production of Death Becomes Her at my home bar Club Majestic. I will finish the month with Zombie vibes for Tulsa Supreme and halloween costume contests.

Closing this month's newsletter with some important things coming up for me.

- Be on the lookout for my first official MGOAF promo
- Online interview with the Gayly to celebrate Transgender Day of Remembrance (TDOR)
- Launch of Femme Power show, a showcase celebrating cis/trans women entertainment
- Prep for MGA

Until next time

All my love,

Londenn
