Friendship Elevator...

Life is like an elevator; sometimes when you get to a certain floor, you have to open the doors and let a person off! Once you've let that person off there is space for you to let someone else on, or even use that space for yourself."

Draw yourself on EVERY floor, with friends or people who mattered then. Try kindy, a school year, a move or life now.

Name:.....

www.littlelifewarriors.com.au