

Keilor Dance Studio Parent / Guardian Code of Conduct

As a parent/guardian of a participant at Keilor Dance Studio you must meet the following requirements of conduct during any activity held at Keilor Dance Studio. Those who break this Code of Conduct are grounds for possible suspension or expulsion.

Demonstrate respect for teachers, students, staff and other parents at all times.

Take responsibility to read email updates and keep up-to-date with current activities and important information.

In classes and concerts remember you are in a environment of children, so please keep your conversation positive and appropriate. Try to have fun when you are around your child at dance classes or performances . Well - directed humour can be a great de - stressor.

Please take any problems/concerns directly to a teacher or studio owner outside class times to allow a resolution. Do not discuss your concerns amongst other parents/guardians.

Do not dictate your own personal opinions about the business/class/dance routine to a teacher. Let the teacher do the teaching.

Inappropriate, disrespectful or aggressive behaviour by students, parents (including carers or legal guardians) or volunteers will not be tolerated and may result in immediate cancellation of enrolment with no refund or immediate suspension for a allocated period of time.

Please do not interrupt a class to discuss a matter with a teacher. Questions & queries must be emailed directly to the Studio Director.

Refrain from taking photographs or video without a teacher's permission.

Understand that children will grow & benefit in encouraging and practicing teamwork, dedication and commitment.

During problematic situation, be an understanding listener rather than a critic/judge.

Occasionally let your child attend classes without you being there to encourage independence and responsibility.
