CIVIC LIFE 2025

WHY CIVICS?

A government "of the people" can only exist if the people understand how their government works, and are willing to participate in it. Teaching civics is the pathway for meeting both of those goals.

-Lora DeSalvo, Curriculum Associate, iCivics

THE MAIN PURPOSE OF THE PROGRAM

Educating students in Elementary School on their roles and responsibilities as active citizens.

- To engage youth in civil discourse
- To cultivate leadership skills through project-based learning
- To provide a high quality civic learning opportunity where youth are free to express themselves and talk about the issues that matter to them

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Preparing for the Future with Project-Based Learning. Project-based learning is a highly effective method that readies you for the 21st century.

- Documented community service hours that students can use for high school or college applications.
- Summer internships with local government & nonprofit organizations
- Food, prizes, field trips, completion award, civic showcase
- 18 years or older become Deputy Registrars
