Personal Injury Claims

If you are receiving care from Nadeau Chiropractic Associates because of an automobile accident, fall, or as a result of other sudden trauma, we will bill your personal health insurance carrier, as well as, any and all liability insurers involved. If you do not have health insurance, regular payments must be made if responsibility has not been accepted by another insured.

We will be glad to cooperate with attorneys, insurers, adjusters and other parties involved in your case, and will release information to them with your specific authorization. We cannot, however, suspend monthly billings or assign responsibility for payment of your account to other parties without their written consent.

Because Nadeau Chiropractic Associates has no control over the outcome of any lawsuits resulting from your injury, responsibility for payment of your account remains with you.

Should you decide to discontinue care without a proper discharge from Nadeau Chiropractic Associates, all unpaid services will be billed directly to you. If you have an attorney who has signed a lien form acknowledging your outstanding bill here in our office, we will continue to bill you however will withhold any collection procedures of the unpaid amount until settlement has been made. If you do not have an attorney protecting your interest, payment arrangements must be made to clear any remaining balance.

The Doctor's treatment plan will be based upon what he determines is in the best interest for your health and benefit. Please note: We have no influence over your insurance company's reimbursement policies or rationales for denials. We will report clinical information to your Primary Care Physician and insurance company to ensure maximum benefit reimbursement. However, please be aware that you will be responsible for the cost if your insurance company limits the number of adjustments, exams or services, (ie: modalities, exercises, etc.).

We recommend that you verify your chiropractic insurance coverage as well.
