

Consultancy Disclaimer

Last updated: Friday 13th March 2026

The information and consultancy services provided by Sentinel First Aid & Medical Advisory (“Sentinel”) are offered for professional advisory purposes only.

Sentinel provides independent consultancy relating to first aid provision, event medical planning, workplace first aid needs assessments, compliance reviews, and governance oversight. Sentinel does not provide operational medical cover, clinical care, ambulance services, or first aid training.

Nature of Consultancy Services

All services delivered by Sentinel are advisory in nature. Recommendations, reports, and assessments are produced based on:

- information provided by the client
- site observations where applicable
- relevant legislation, guidance, and recognised industry standards

This may include, but is not limited to, guidance published by organisations such as:

- The Health and Safety Executive (HSE)
- The Purple Guide to Health, Safety and Welfare at Music and Other Events
- Resuscitation Council UK
- other recognised professional or regulatory bodies

Sentinel’s role is to provide independent professional advice to assist organisations in meeting their responsibilities.

Responsibility for Implementation

The implementation of any recommendations, plans, or advice provided by Sentinel remains entirely the responsibility of the client organisation.

Sentinel does not manage or control event operations, workplace environments, or the activities of third-party contractors or service providers.

Clients remain responsible for ensuring compliance with all applicable legislation and regulatory requirements.

Accuracy of Information

Consultancy advice is based on the information made available to Sentinel at the time of assessment.

Sentinel cannot accept responsibility for advice based on incomplete, inaccurate, or misleading information supplied by a client or third party.

No Guarantee of Outcome

While Sentinel aims to provide robust and defensible advice aligned with recognised guidance and best practice, no consultancy service can eliminate all risk.

Sentinel cannot guarantee the prevention of incidents, injuries, or medical emergencies. Risk management ultimately depends on the effective implementation and management of safety measures by the client.

Independence

Sentinel First Aid & Medical Advisory operates as an independent consultancy. Advice provided is impartial and focused solely on governance, compliance, and risk management considerations.

Sentinel does not promote or recommend specific operational service providers unless expressly requested as part of a procurement or advisory process.

Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by law, Sentinel shall not be liable for any indirect, consequential, or operational losses arising from the use of consultancy advice or documentation.

Nothing in this disclaimer excludes liability where such exclusion would be unlawful.
