

PROFESSIONAL CREDENTIALS

Allison D. Gee of Allison Gee Fine Art Appraisals is an Accredited Senior Appraiser through the American Society of Appraisers, designated and tested in Fine Arts, and an Accredited Member through the International Society of Appraisers, designated in Fine Arts. She has served private, public and corporate clients throughout Arizona and the United States since 2001. Her practice focuses on American and European paintings, prints, works on paper and sculptures.

Ms. Gee earned a Bachelor of Arts in Humanities and a Masters of Art in Art History from Arizona State University, Tempe, Arizona. She studied both French and Italian, and her foreign language graduate examination was in Italian. Ms. Gee also graduated with a Certificate in Appraisal Studies in Fine and Decorative Art from the University of California, Irvine.

Her continuing appraisal education includes participation in multiple symposiums and conferences, including with speakers from the Internal Revenue Service's Art Appraisal Services division and legal department on valuation issues involving laws and regulations in estate taxes and charitable donations. Courses in 2018 include The Federal Tax Deduction for Donated Property: Rules for Appraising and Claiming the Deduction and Advanced Topics for Charitable Contributions: Bargain Sales, Fractional Interests, Cost Basis and IRS Form 8283.

In 2019, Ms. Gee attended the American Society of Appraisers Personal Property Connoisseurship Conference in Santa Fe, New Mexico. Program sessions included IRS Stamp of Approval with speakers Robin Bonner, Appraisal Services Department, IRS, and Karin Gross, Special Counsel Income Tax and Accounting, Office of the Chief Counsel, IRS. In 2019, Ms. Gee also attended an intensive two-day course through the American Society of Appraisers titled Fair Market Value: Appraising Personal Property for Non-Cash Charitable Contributions & Estates in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Ms. Gee served six years in an elected position on the International Personal Property Discipline Committee of the American Society of Appraisers, including a two-year term from 2010-2012 on the Executive Board. She is a Past President of the Phoenix-Metro Chapter of ASA and also served on the Board of the local chapter from 2002-2005.

Additionally, Ms. Gee has been a guest lecturer throughout the Phoenix-Metro area, including presentations for the College of Estate Planning Attorneys; Arizona Society of Public Accountants; Desert Caballeros Western Museum; West Valley Art Museum; Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art; and Art History 480 (Research Methods) at Arizona State University.

In 2019, she has presented for Chubb Insurance and Johnson Financial Group. She was a program speaker for the 2019 Planned Giving Round Table of Arizona Annual Conference, and her presentation The Fine Art of Gifting: The Role of Appraisers and Appraisals in Non-cash Charitable Contributions was approved for continuing education credits for both the Certified Fund Raising Executive and Certified Financial Planner. Ms. Gee is a scheduled keynote speaker for the Phoenix Art Museum's Art and Legacy Seminar in November 2019.

Ms. Gee is a past Board Member of Art Link, the oldest all-volunteer arts organization in downtown Phoenix, and a member of the Arizona State University Foundation's Partners in Philanthropy. She also was elected into membership of and remains active in ArtTable, the New York City based, national leadership organization for professional women in the visual arts.

Prior to opening her own practice in 2001, Ms. Gee worked for one year as an art appraiser at Corinne Cain, Ltd. in Phoenix, Arizona.