The Mt Toubkal Summer Trek will require preparation as the challenge is designed to take you out of your every-day comfort zone and achieve something amazing. They are responsible for ensuring the complete safety, well-being and enjoyment of the team whilst also retaining a flexible and fun attitude.

The Leaders have radio and phone contact with local base contacts and Outlook Adventures HQ.

Trip grading

The Mt Toubkal Summer Trek is graded as 'Tough'.

The trip is designed for confident trekkers who may be new to high altitude trekking as well as those who have some experience. Although this trek is not technically difficult, you should be an experienced walker as trails can be very stony. Most routes follow mule trails but there are some rough paths that involve walking on scree. You should be prepared for a couple of long days with some boulders and steep sections.

The temperature at particular times of year can make a difference to how tough this trek feels. Please note that during the summer months of July and August, Morocco can get very hot therefore departures during this time may not be suitable if you struggle with the heat. In addition, please be prepared for some stormy weather during the summer months. There can also be snow patches in late April/early May and from the end of September.

CARBON FOOTPRINT

We've crunched the numbers to work out the total carbon footprint of the Mt Toubkal Summer Trek, and plant or protect enough trees to suck 2x as much back out the atmosphere.

What's the number?

It works out on average at 222kg of CO2 emissions per person, including all local transport, accommodation, food, activities, leaders, crew and office operations.

The only thing not included is travel to Morocco. Given that our beloved guests travel from all parts of the UK for this adventure we have no way of reliably knowing their travel plans therefore we're unable to include an individual number in the figure on display here.

What does the number mean?

To give you a snapshot of the numbers:

- Driving 1000miles/1609km would be approx. 281kg of CO2 in an average car (or 140.5kg per person if there was 2 of you).
- A return economy class flight London – New York would be approx. 1,619kg (1.66 tonnes) per person.
- 10 trees in a temperate forest are estimated to remove approx. 250kg of CO2 from the air over a period of 5 – 10 years.

What are we doing about it?

Our adventures are relatively low-carbon by design, and we're working to develop long term carbon reduction plan. Following much research into climate change organisations, we carefully selected to support the environmental charity, Cool Earth. They're a sustainable operation and work with rainforest communities across the globe to halt deforestation and it's impact on climate change. We invest 1% of our revenue into supporting critical conservation projects world-wild with Cool Earth.

TOURISM DECLARES CLIMATE EMERGENCY

Want to know more?

We believe that with great travel, comes even greater responsibility. Tourism is one of the most important and largest industries on the planet. It employs more people worldwide than any other, with millions of families relying on tourism for their daily needs. At Outlook Adventures we believe that our type of small scale, positive impact tourism can bring benefits to many communities, help preserve the environments we travel to see, and provide real and positive social exchanges.

TOP TIPS

Summer Mountain Trekking

- Dress the part. Wear wicking or merino wool based t-shirt to wick any moisture away from your body. Do not wear cotton t-shirts
- Have good sun protection – full brimmed hat or cap with a buff/scarf to protect your neck, use SPF50 sunscreen
- Train in your trekking kit, including wearing your rucksack with weight inside, in varying weather conditions so you know your kit is both suitable and comfortable for your trek
- Wear good sturdy hiking boots which are comfy, well worn-in
- Look after your feet – blister prevention
- Climbing up scree slopes can be very taxing. A good method is to try walking up scree without making a noise. It will make you think about how you're putting your feet down, moving efficiently and not overstretching. Also, dig your toes in to get a firm footing. To head down, face outwards and kick your heels in on every step.
- If you really feel the heat, bring a handheld fan, buff & a full brimmed hat which you can wet or a cooling spray
- Despite the summer warmth in the day, as soon as the sun sets the nights can become very cool. Bring a warm fleece or light weight down jacket
- Keep waterproofs, warm layer, snacks, water, first aid & any medication within easy access in your Rucksack.
- Bring your own hand sanitiser (essential)
- Trekking poles which are retractable are a great way to provide stability and support your knees whilst hiking
- Bring some of your favourite high calorie snacks. Remove as much packaging as you can before taking it on the trek (less litter to carry)
- Bring your own water bottle / flask etc that you can refill.
- Water Purification tablets/drops are essential or always boil your water.
- We recommend you bring electrolyte tablets
- Be respectful of the rural Berber communities, people, land & homes
- Most importantly.....ENJOY THE ENTIRE EXPERIENCE
