Fast Paced. Thought Provoking. Remarkably Possible.

What if the greatest constraint in American education isn't a lack of funding, standards, or effort - but a hidden design flaw in how we measure and motivate learning?

In this revolutionary keynote, Dr. Lyle Lee Jenkins, a recognized authority in improving educational outcomes and multi-talented author, invites audiences on a eye-opening journey. Plan for a journey not only to uncover the constraint that has held back education for decades, but to replace it - with a framework so powerful, it reawakens the very joy of learning that every kindergartner instinctively carries.

With humor, hope, and heart, Dr. Jenkins draws from decades of hands-on experience to illuminate The Learning Trifecta: Mastery = Resilience + Wonder - three inseparable pillars of lifelong learning.

There is a better way...The Learning Trifecta!

"When students are given remarkable work to do, they do remarkable things."

- Jim Rohn

"Every system is perfectly designed to get the results it gets."

- W. Edwards Deming

Dr. Jenkins doesn't just describe what's broken - he hands educators the blueprint to rebuild. This isn't another call to "try harder". It's an invitation to imagine a future where schools no longer downplay curiosity, but supercharge it!
