

Circleville Dairy Shed is a true mom & pop, family owned, small town staple. Located at 350 Kingston Pike, the original Dairy Shed was established in 1964 Through the years the business has changed hands many times.

The McConnells; Roger, Sara and Colleen, have owned and operated Dairy Shed since 1995. In 2001 the old building was razed to make way for the new, improved version that you see today. This one included a drive-thru!

The menu has grown extensively along with the business. There are now over 100 food items on the menu. These include hot & cold sandwiches, sides and appetizers prepared fresh for every taste. There are seasonal specials like homemade chicken and noodles with mashed potatoes, chili and marzetti.

The ice cream selection includes 43 soft serve flavors. You can purchase ice cream in a cone, cup, pint, quart or even gallon! Sundaes, Milk Shakes, Malts, Slushes and Arctic Swirls are also offered. You can even get an old-fashioned Ice Cream Soda or Root Beer Float! With 24 hour notice you can get a fresh, made-to-order ice cream cake.

The large, shaded patio area has 7 tables available for open-air dining. The hours change with the seasons and major holidays are recognized. Dairy Shed is open 48 weeks of the year. Call-in orders are accepted.

In 2016 we opened our Kingston location at 21 North Main Street. The new Dairy Shed, Too and Ramrod's Pizza has indoor seating, pizza, salads and our regular Dairy Shed menu. Local delivery is available for all items!
