Human Resource Support that Meets Your Needs

HR on Demand provides human resource support when you need the expertise, but don't have the resources in house.

Our service focuses on small to medium businesses or start up businesses, providing security that your human resources strategies and day to day operations are supported, to help you achieve your business goals. Our service provides the most cost-effective way to utilise Senior Human Resource expertise at a fraction of the costs.

MTK Konsulting will provide support in Human Resource functional areas listed below:

- Recruitment and selection
- Induction and Orientation
- Performance Management
- Career Development and Planning
- Training and development
- De-selection
- Human Resource Information Systems
- Policy and Procedure development
- Day to day operational issues
- HR strategic planning

Clients may choose to outsource all HR functions above or a combination of the functions to meet their needs. Support and costs are determined based on client requirements.
