

THEME

Churches and Cemeteries

To Navigate Photos Use the "Next" & "Previous" Arrows Below

IMG06001
Episcopal Church pre-1925

IMG06002
Episcopal Church pre-1925

IMG06003

Church of God,corner of 3rd and E streets,built about 1946,Cleve and C.D.Moore helped plan the building

IMG06004

Christ Episcopal Church completed in 195 after hurricane destruction in 1950,bronze cross was forged from metal collected from townspeople,located at 5th St. and 24

IMG06005

Former African American Baptist Church, 757 6th St

IMG06006
drawing of Christ Episcopal Church 1925-1950

IMG06007

sanctuary of Christ Episcopal Church built in 1952

IMG06008

African-American Church - now a home on 7th Street behind Community Cntr

Church-757 6th

Church-

PARSONAGE

IMG06009

Church on 6th St at 757 6th St and Parsonage on 6th St (Black Baptist Church)

IMG06010

1st Methodist Church built around 1900 by Joe Boothby's father; located at 3rd St and Hwy 24

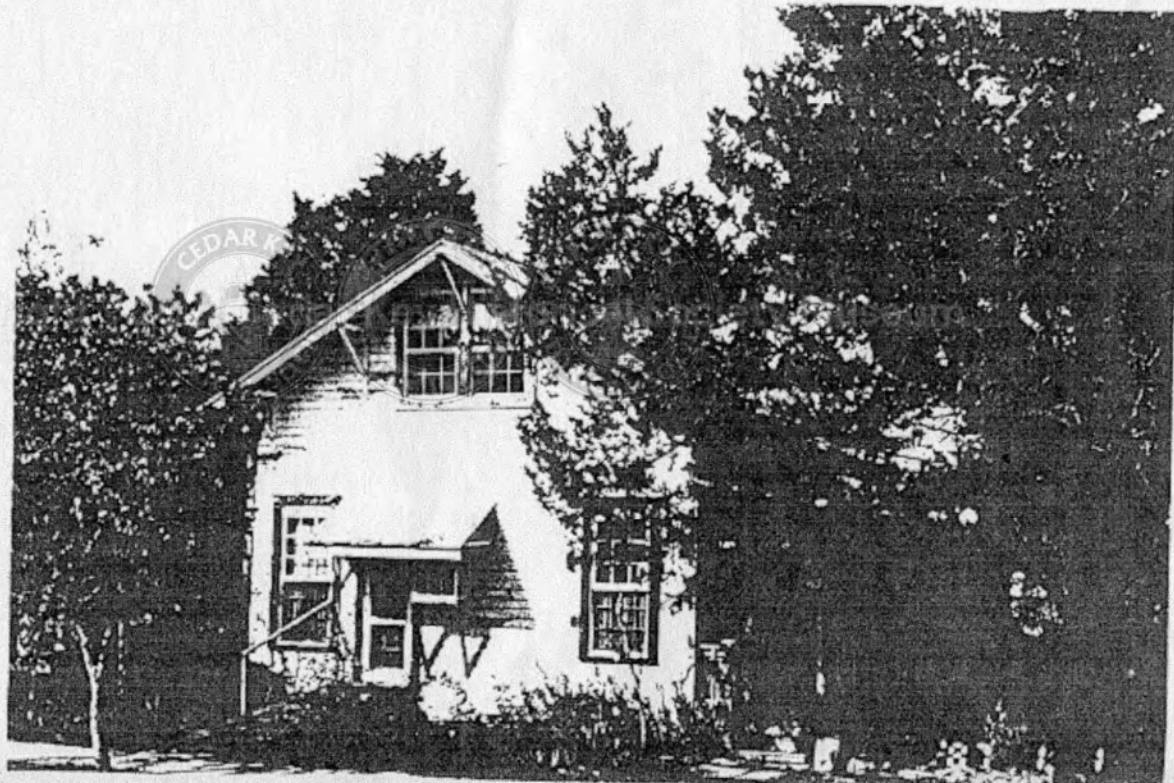

43 CEDAR KEY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

IMC06011

Cedar Key United Methodist Church ca.1889

OLD PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH BUILDING. 1892

IMG06012

Old Presbyterian Church ca.1892

IMG06013

was once the Baptist church; Louise Depew's house then Bucky Schlemmer's house

IMG06014

Burton Walrath's house, formerly a church

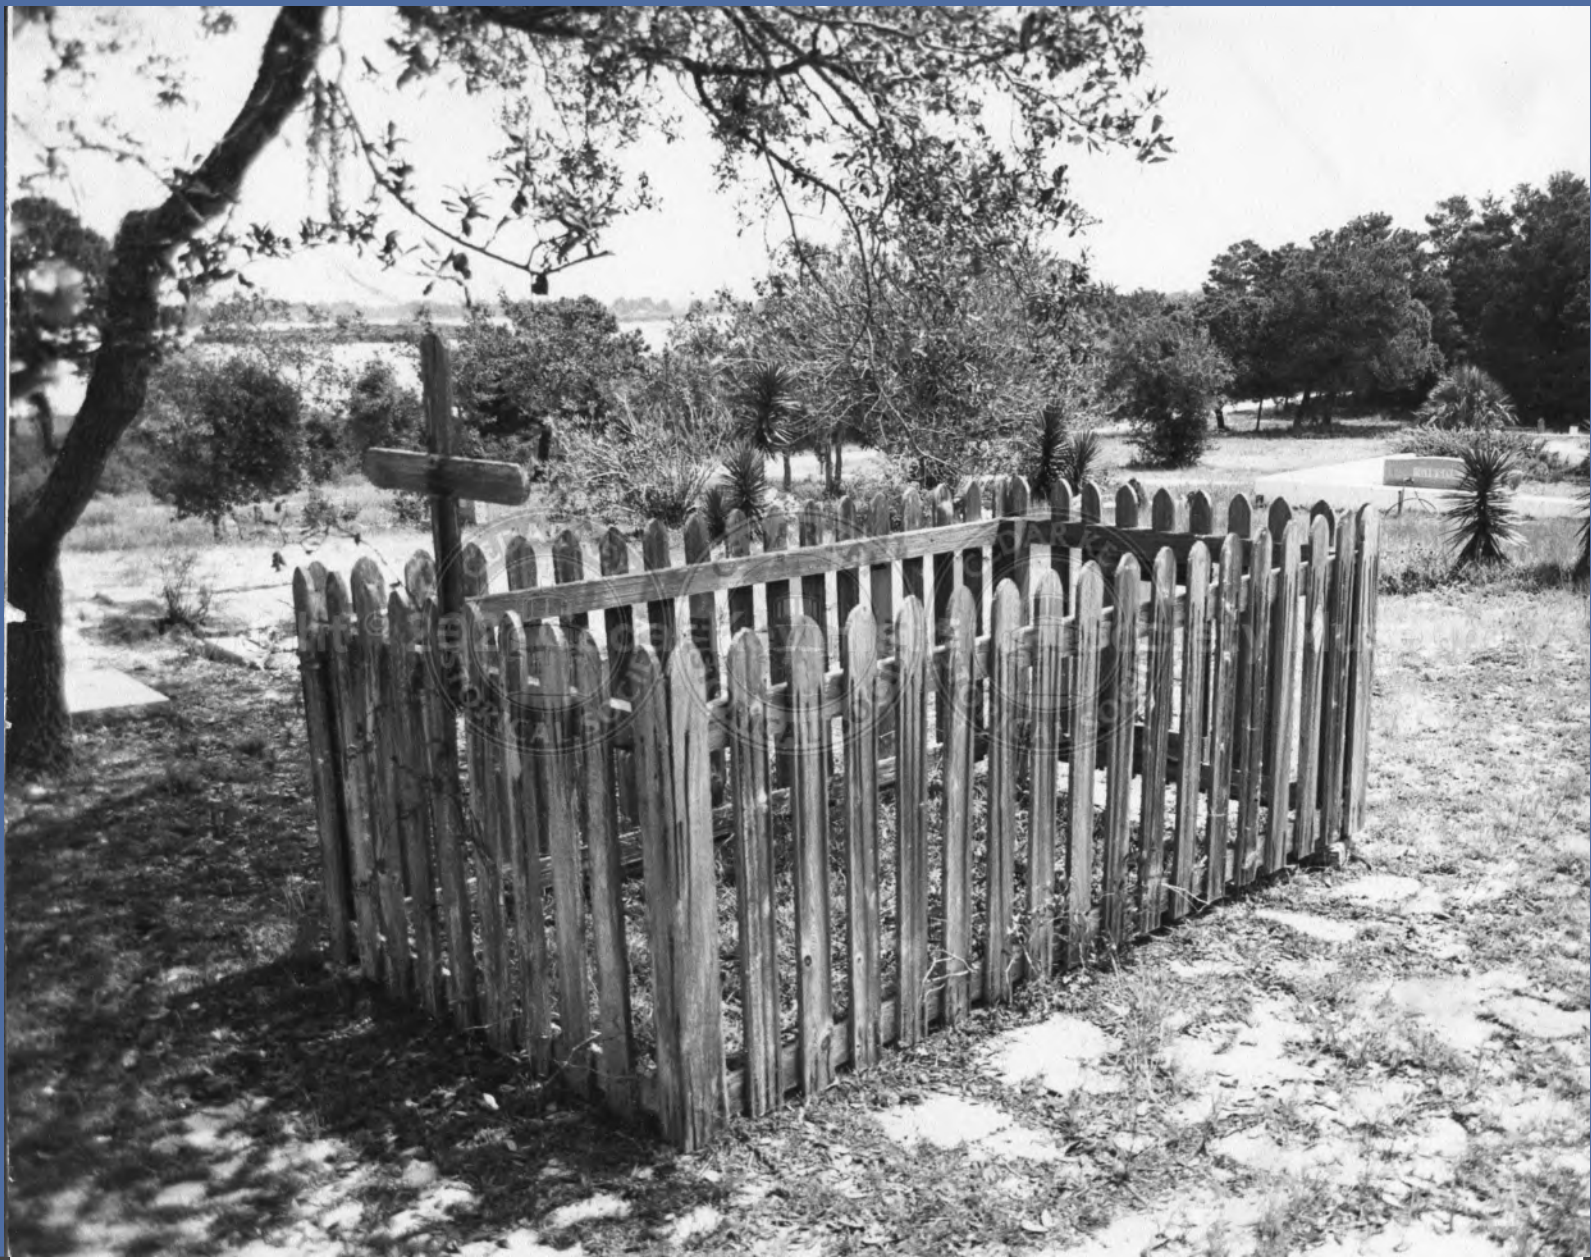

IMG06015

Episcopal church which burned in 1920's UPDATE: Our original estimated date of the 1920's could in fact range from after 1909 but would appear to be well before 1920. Source: Sanborn Maps

IMG06016
The Church of Jesus Christ

IMG06017

Jimmy, the Greek, Kepote's grave; he was co-owner with his brothers Alec & Manual of a soft drink parlor next door to current, 2019, Drummond Bank

IMG06018

Located at Shiloh Cemetery, the graves seen here are topped with clam shells; a widely practiced tradition in Cedar Key. Clams are native to the area; evidence shows that they have always played a large role in the culture of every society that has inhabited this area, and still do to this day, as clams are Cedar Key's top export.

IMG06019
Bishop-Rowland cemetery 1900-1906

IMG06020

First Baptist Church, 2019, built in 1923, at 2nd and E streets

IMG06021
First Baptist Church

