CANCELLATION POLICY

Rachael books out her entire business day for a bridal party, and takes no other clients on your day. This means that all details need to be finalized before signing this contract. Larger bridal parties may require that Rachael hire an assistant. This will ensure that the bride and all attendees receiving makeup services are completed by the time provided by the bride.

*By signing this contract, client agrees to the following:

1. Bride is responsible for full payment of any attendees who may drop out or decide they no longer want makeup after signing of this contract. This is due to Rachael booking out her entire day (as mentioned above) for your wedding in advance, as well as her assistant, if applicable.
2. If additional attendees are requested the day of service, they will be accommodated only if time permits. They will be priced the same as all other attendees.

*Please note – If bridal client cancels her bridal/bridal party makeup within 1 month of the wedding date agreed upon between Rachael and the bride, the bride agrees to pay Rachael 50% of the total cost of makeup services. If the cancellation is within 1 week of the wedding date, bride agrees to pay 100% of the total cost of makeup services.

*Additional charges may apply for rescheduling depending on location, services required, etc.

WEDDING WEEK PREP

- The week of your wedding, make sure you hydrate by drinking lots of water. This will help dry skin, clear skin, and in turn, help for a smoother makeup application.
- Exfoliate your skin two days before your wedding day and moisturize!
- Make sure if you are doing any eyebrow waxing, etc., that it be done a couple days before.
- In my own personal opinion, try not to drink too much the night before your wedding! You do not want to feel hungover and/or bloated for your big day!
- Finally, day of, come to me with a clean face. Enjoy YOUR day and let me handle the stresses of all your makeup needs.

Thanks again for choosing me!!
