

Fr. Michael Voithofer

Fr. Michael Voithofer grew up in a small town in rural town of Carmicheals in Southwestern, Pennsylvania. He is the oldest of 3 brothers and forever grateful to his parents Michael and Denise who provided a wonderful solid Catholic upbringing.

During his high school years, Father Michael experienced a serious leg injury that led him to ask deeper and more difficult questions about his faith And the existence of God. While enduring and recovering from nine surgeries, Fr. Michael found it difficult to pray. During these times his parents were praying the holy rosary at his bedside. He had a powerful experience of the Blessed Mother's love began his formation eventually becoming a priest.

Fr. Michael began his studies at Penn

State University where he had a profound life changing experience of the Holy Spirit through the charismatic prayer group which fellow students invited him to attend. Through this found life in the Holy Spirit, Father Michael continued to fall in love with Eucharistic Adoration, Confession, and the Holy Rosary. All of this gave birth to his calling to the Priesthood.

Fr. Michael was ordained to the Priesthood of Jesus Christ on June 5th, 2010. He loves being a priest! He burns 'Ablaze' with a desire to build Up a culture of Pentecost within the Church. Fr. Michael promotes this ministry of Ablaze House of prayer to accomplish this end.

Fr. Michael is a spiritual father and spiritual Director. He has directed and preached many personal and private retreats for people of all ages. He has appeared on EWTN as a guest on Battle Ready with Doug Barry. Fr. Michael has attended and preached at the International Women's Magnificat Conference and he is currently the spiritual director for The Magnificat Chapter in Omaha, NE.
