CHARACTER ASSESSMENT:

Harry Burgh

Four years younger and several shades less battle-worn than the man readers meet in The Lindberg Discovery. In Descent, Harry is a rising Evergreen consultant conducting a routine Discovery on EuroTrade's shipping fleet. His sharp instincts already intact, but not yet tested by anything close to what's coming in Book 1. His homesickness for Gilly and the kids is already there, though; some things about Harry never change.
