

1. All people that on earth do dwell,
sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;
him serve with fear, his praise forth
tell.
Come ye before him and rejoice.

2. The Lord, ye know, is God indeed, without our aid he did us make;
we are his folk; he doth us feed,
and for his sheep he doth us take.

3. O enter then his gates with praise, approach with joy his courts unto;
praise, laud and bless his name
always,
for it is seemly so to do.

4. For why? the Lord our God is good;
his mercy is for ever sure;
his truth at all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure.

5. To Father, Son and Holy Ghost, the God whom heaven and earth
adore,
from men and from the angel-host
be praise and glory evermore.

1. Who would true valour see,
let him come hither;
one here will constant be come wind, come weather;
There's no discouragement
shall make him once relent
his first avowed intent
to be a pilgrim.

2. Who so beset him round
with dismal stories,
do but themselves confound,

his strength the more is.
No lion can him fright
he'll with a giant fight
But he will have the right
to be a pilgrim.

3. Hobgoblin nor foul fiend
can daunt his Spirit,
he knows he at the end
shall life inherit.
Then fancies flee away!
He'll not fear what men say,
He'll labour night and day
to be a pilgrim.

1. The God of Abraham praise
who reigns enthroned above,
Ancient of everlasting Days,
and God of love:
Jehovah, great I AM,
by earth and heaven confest;
we bow and bless the sacred name,
for ever blest.

2. Though nature's strength decay,
And earth and hell withstand,
To Canaan's bounds we urge our way
At his command:
The watery deep we pass,
With Jesus in our view;
And through the howling wilderness
Our way pursue.

3. The goodly land we see,
With peace and plenty blest:
A land of sacred liberty
And endless rest;
There milk and honey flow,
And oil and wine abound,
And trees of life for ever grow,
With mercy crowned.

4. There dwells the Lord our King,
The Lord our Righteousness,
Triumphant o'er the world of sin,
The Prince of peace:
On Sion's sacred height
His kingdom he maintains,
And glorious with his saints in light
For ever reigns.

5. Before the Saviour's face
The ransomed nations bow,
O'erwhelmed at his almighty grace
For ever new;
He shows his prints of love
They kindle to a flame,
And sound through all the worlds
above
The slaughtered Lamb.

6. The whole triumphant host give thanks to God on high;
'Hail, Father, Son and Holy Ghost!'
they ever cry:
Hail, Abraham's God and mine,
I join the heavenly lays
All might and majesty are thine
And endless praise.

1. Thy hand, O God, has guided thy flock, from age to age;
the wondrous tale is written,
full clear, on every page;
our fathers owned thy goodness,
and we their deeds record;
and both of this bear witness:
one Church, one Faith, one Lord.

2. Thy heralds brought glad tidings
to greatest, as to least;
they bade men rise, and hasten

to share the great King's feast;
and this was all their teaching,
in every deed and word,
to all alike proclaiming:
one Church, one Faith, one Lord.

3. When shadows thick were falling,
And all seemed sunk in night,
Thou, Lord, didst send thy servants,
Thy chosen sons of light.
On them and on thy people
Thy plenteous grace was poured,
And this was still their message:
One church, on faith, one Lord.

4. Through many a day of darkness,
through many a scene of strife,
the faithful few fought bravely
to guard the nation's life.
Their gospel of redemption,
sin pardoned, man restored,
was all in this enfolded:
one Church, one Faith, one Lord.

5. And we, shall we be faithless?
Shall hearts fail, hands hang down?
Shall we evade the conflict,
and cast away our crown?
Not so: in God's deep counsels
some better thing is stored;
we will maintain, unflinching,
one Church, one Faith, one Lord.

6. Thy mercy will not fail us,
nor leave thy work undone;
with thy right hand to help us,
the victory shall be won;
and then by men and angels
thy name shall be adored.
And this shall be their anthem:
One Church, one Faith, one Lord.
