Castra is a financial consultancy firm providing integrated, results-driven solutions across financial modeling, feasibility studies, business planning, and project finance. Backed by deep industry expertise and analytical rigor, we support clients across sectors such as infrastructure, financial services, tourism, and consumer goods.

At Castra, we offer a one-stop solution that bridges financial strategy with practical implementation. We don't stop at delivering reports — we work alongside clients to address core challenges and turn plans into action, from fundraising and structuring to securing the right financing instruments.

Whether supporting early-stage ventures or established enterprises, Castra delivers clarity, confidence, and continuity at every stage.
