

Satya Mauludi

- Bachelor Petroleum Engineering, Trisakti University
- Master of Business Administration, Gadjah Mada University

Extensive Experience

- Public Private Partnership (PPP) engineering
- Transaction Structuring
- Project Financing
- Project Development
- Business Operations for EPC Activities

Background

Satya Mauludi is a Project Manager in the Advisory division who extensively provides consulting services to Government clients, SOEs and private sector, and also participates in entrepreneurial activities that have good understanding of business transactions.

He has over 10 years of experience in engineering, finance, and investment. He began as a reservoir engineer at PT Pertamina Hulu Energi Offshore North West Java, then worked at PT Sarana Multi Infrastruktur (Persero) focusing on PPP and public advisory. Later, he gained valuable insights into the retail sector as a business owner.

Experience

- PPP Advisory Project Palapa Ring Project: Preparation Phase, (Feasibility Study, Permits, and Environmental Documents); Transaction Phase (Tender Prequalification, RfP, and KPBU Agreement); Financial Close Phase (fulfilling all aspects of financing for the Project Financing concerned)
- PPP Advisory Project in Health Sector: Preparation Phase (Feasibility Study, Permits, and Environmental Documents)
- PPP Advisory Project in Industrial Sector: Preparation Phase (Feasibility Study, Permits, and Environmental Documents)