

PebbleCreek Quilters Board Meeting June 6, 2021

Attendance: Ronda Jones, Marka Locker, Sandy Crabtree, JoEllen Cruze, Linda Rowe, Patsy Wagner, Jean Fry, Carole Schumacher, Roberta Penchina

Ronda called meeting to order at 9AM. The Fiber Arts room can be used from 7 am to 9 pm with key.

Members must still register to use long arm. New hours posted on the website.

We received a thank you card from Grace Cooper - Go with the Flow bags

Treasurer: Patsy reported for George. Checking $4,678.95, Long arm Savings $9,808.65, Petty Cash $50.00, Balance $14,537.60.

Publicity: Linda reported on recent interview that appeared in this month's Post with the second part in the July issue and will write an article on the June 19th community sew day, which will sew hospice bibs.

Community Service: Patsy is working on a new quilt label that also includes care instructions and our logo. Spoonflower is name of the company.

Possible cancellation of July charity sew day due to lack of response.

Discussed question - are we doing too much charity work? ie. go with the flow. Possibly pass some future queries to the sewing club? Want to stay focused on quilting. Be more selective with our projects?

Education: Sandy reported the Global quilt connection received positive feedback from participants. Should we ask all participants for a review of classes? Second one in Nov. and do we as a guild want to participate? Sandy proposes establishing a technology committee for the club? Do we continue to Zoom?

Social: Chris Booth - Christmas in July? (Chris was not at meeting)

Classes: Carole Schumacher: market totes class for June 17th 12-5 pm.
Carol and Marka - Snowman class on August 18th.

Gallery Sales: JoEllen will feature a quilt for sale in gallery showcase.

Long arm: Roberta reported that only she and Irene are here for the summer. Certification will begin doing two ladies at a time.

JoEllen raised issue of changing hours for long arm to allow 2 sessions per day. Roberta will set up refresher class for fall and film it to be placed on the website so anyone can view. There are currently 40 people on the waiting list to learn long arm.

New business: We will be hanging quilts in hallway again. Marka and Carol will help Ronda. In Sept. we will put up fall quilts then replace them in November with Christmas and Holiday. Email to go out asking for quilts from members. Linda may do an article about these quilts being shown.

Ronda has appointed a new Standing Committee: The Nominating Committee – Chris Booth and Donna Wisnowski.

2022 Quilt show is on the calendar for March 11, 12 & 13, of 2022.

Respectfully submitted,
Carol Moonan
(Via Marka Locker)

PebbleCreek Quilters General Meeting June 14, 2021

Attendance: 49

Ronda called the meeting to order at 7PM.
She introduced new members and those who have joined since we were meeting via zoom. They stood and introduced themselves, Including:
Mia Nacht, Carla Peccianti, Karen Winn, Darlene Helker, Julie Baird, Pam McWhorter, Jeri Allen, Judy Sellers, Lori Dougherty.
Donna Iverson has returned. Each was warmly welcomed with applause!

The Fiber Arts room can be used from 7 am to 9 pm. Hours are 9-3 pm and after hours are 3-9 pm. After hours require a key, you must enter from the south door and cannot be alone in the building.

Members must still register to use long arm. New hours posted on the website. Monday 9am-12pm is now available, except for the first Monday of the month.

Treasurer: George reported: Checking $4,678.95, Long arm Savings $9,808.65, Petty Cash $50.00, Balance $14,537.60.

Community Service: Patsy showed a quilt made at the last Charity Sew day. Judy Frank will coordinate this Saturday's Sew Day, from 9 – 1pm. Making clothing protectors/ Adult Bibs. Goal is to make 30 Bibs. Bring your own beverage. She will provide snacks. Sign up not required, bring machine with neutral thread. Kits are already made.

Cheryl McGovern, her assistant Debbie Arsenault and the Quilting 101 class students showed the quilts made by the new quilters.

Vets Quilts: Cynthia reported the program will be Wednesday, Nov 10. Luncheon as well as the program. Now looking for funding from clubs to pay for the luncheon for each Vet and their guest.

She encouraged quilters to plan to attend if possible. She needs 20 quilts – about 4 more required. Linda Rowe will coordinate the Vets Appreciation Program next year.

Challenge Quilts: Kathleen spoke about the topic and requirements. Due by March 1. This year is split complementary color scheme. She will offer a class in the fall about how to select colors for this project. Can be any size or style. Pattern can be traditional, modern or your choice. She showed several color wheels.

Classes: Carole Schumacher: Scrappy market totes class for June 17th 12-5 pm. Class is full.

Long arm: Roberta reported she is starting Certifications again, 2 people at a time. When you use the machine, let her or Irene know about any problems. Do not just leave it without reporting it. The machine is used a lot so we want it in good condition.

New business:

The bylaw amendment passed.

We will be hanging quilts in hallway again. Marka and Carol will help Ronda. On Friday October 29th, we will put up fall quilts then replace them on November 30th with Christmas and Holiday. Email to go out asking for quilts from members.

Ronda has appointed a new Standing Committee: The Nominating Committee – Chris Booth and Donna Wisnoski. They will be looking for those interested in new board positions.

Not planning any more Zoom General meetings!

2022 Quilt show is on the calendar for March 11, 12 & 13, 2022.

No meetings scheduled in July.

Ronda has discount cards for Mulqueen's and Bobs Variety.

Judy Frank moved and Cathy Howell seconded that we adjourn the meeting.

We commenced with Show and Tell.

Respectfully submitted,
Carol Moonan