President: Ronda called the meeting to order – silence phones, please. She gave several reminders.

Studio Keys may only be checked out for 24 hours. As a courtesy to the other Studio users, please allow at least a day or two before you recheck out the key.

Building is now open until 4 pm Monday through Saturday (this is based on when the gallery is open so that makes the building open).

Please be sure to clean room (tables, equipment anything that you have touched before you leave. If possible, do not leave it for the last person in the room to clean the entire room. ALSO BE SURE THAT EVERYTHING IS PUT AWAY AND THE CABINET DOORS ARE LOCKED.

Vice President: Marka will collect dues at October general meeting.

Each year Robson has budgeted some monies for the clubs. We are looking at 2 additional sewing machines possibly the Janome 3160 that the CAC would purchase for us. Each would be $599 with tax. Marka will write up a proposal for Robson and Ronda will submit.

Holiday Luncheon: Prices have gone up. Chicken at $17, Pork at $18, Cobb Salad at $18. Patsy moved and Marka seconded the motion that we will charge $18 and club will pay taxes and gratuities. Marka will get information out and tickets can be purchased on line or at the next meeting.

Secretary: One note sent out and 11 tickets purchased for the Veterans Appreciation Day.

Treasurer: Checking has $6848, Longarm account has $10208.

Publicity: Linda reported she will do an article on the Zippy Strippy bags Community Sew day, and will do another article on the Opportunity Quilt, encouraging people to attend the Holiday Festival on Dec 4, where they can also purchase tickets.

Community Service: Zippy Strippy bag sew day was highly successful! Many bags made by Beverly Kim in advance and 14 members participating.

Oct 16 is next sew day for Hope Bags for New Life Center. Making 50 bags is the goal. Suggested use of Jeans Needles for the sew day. This will be the last community sew day for the year.

Programs: Sandy asked who watched the Global Quilt Connection. 5 people at the meeting had. Sandy would like input from others about which classes we would be most interested in.

Quiltcom is coming to Phoenix this year, Feb 16-20, 2022.

Rusty Barn will be in January at the Fairgrounds.

Kelly Cline has a trunk show posted. Ronda will send it out to the club members.

Long Arm: Roberta reported that 22 people have been certified this summer, thanks to help from Irene and Debbie A. Reminder to long armers: Clean bobbin area well, leave 3-4 inches on each side, will create a check out sheet for the leaders, needles are titanium – do not automatically change the needles. She will send out these and other reminders to certified members.

Standing Committees:

Veterans Day: Cynthia Schwartz meeting next week to finalize plans. Linda Rowe will take over leadership next year. Oct 22 is last date to sign up for the luncheon. $20 for quilters, $25 for others.

Opportunity Quilt will be set up in front of the fireplace in the foyer during the luncheon. Up at 10:30, until 3:00 when the program in the theatre is over. Helen Phillips will set up and start selling.

Oct 15 and 16 we will sell tickets at 35th Ave. All spaces are filled.

Holiday Fest will also sell tickets. About 600 tickets remaining. We will order 500 more tickets.

JoEllen needs more holiday items for the window during the Holiday Fest.

Nominating Committee: Donna reported the slate to be presented Monday night. The ballot will be presented and the voting opens online right after the meeting. Results will go
