

CHRISTY WOLVERTON-RYZMAN

Christy Wolverton-Ryzman is the owner and director of Dance Industry Performing Arts Center in Plano, Texas. Christy opened dance industry in the year 2000 and never looked back. Dance industry houses some of the most talented dancers in the country and is known for the artistry they bring to the stage and the technical proficiency of the dancers. Christy started dance at a very young age and continued her dance training competitively and professionally. Before opening the studio in 2000, Christy danced for several industrial shows, danced with Jean Ann Ryan Production Company, performing Broadway review shows as well as Las Vegas-style shows. Christy was a dancer on the world empress, a private cruise ship that traveled all over the world. Christy was also a member of the Dallas Maverick Dancers. Her other performances include Special Olympics, Greater Aids Foundation, Scottish Rite Children's Hospital, and Cancer Foundation. Christy has been featured on "Good Day Dallas" and selected as a main performer in a Brooks and Dunn music video. She has performed for Lennox and the L'image hair show industrials as well as judged several college dance teams. Christy has been awarded choreographer of the year which was presented to her by Mia Michaels. Christy has been teaching in the Plano area for over twenty-five years. She has taught for Dance Masters of America and set work all over the country. She has been recognized as a top choreographer regionally and nationally and is known across the country for having technically trained dancers. Christy strives for perfection with each dancer helping them to reach their highest potential

