COUNCIL ROCK NORTH STUDENT DONATES HOMEMADE MASKS

Sanjana Harihar donated over 200 homemade masks to local homeless shelters and group homes that lacked funds to provide adequate protection for their residents when the Covid pandemic reached Bucks County. As a member of the Girl's Leadership Council at the Alice Paul Institute, she became especially concerned about the needs of underrepresented communities. Relying solely on online tutorials, she taught herself how to use a sewing machine and construct masks in order to reach her impressive goal.

*Great work!
