ABOUT

Renowned for his exceptional drumming skills. Tim started his professional career on tour with the Delfonics at the age of 14! This music instructor and chart-topping recording artist has carved a unique place in the industry. His journey from an aspiring musician to a celebrated performer is a testament to the power of perseverance. He is a well-received recording artist and composer. When Tim isn't performing his own original music, he regularly plays with Maysa Leaks and is a member of Gerald Veasley's Unscripted Jazz Series house band.
