

Swami Sachidananda Saraswati (Brief Introduction)

Swami Sachidananda is a disciple of Pujya Swami Dayanand Saraswati ji. He is known for his simple and clear exposition of the vision of Vedanta, making this profound vision accessible to modern audiences.

Swami Sachidananda studied Vedanta at Arsha Vidya Gurukulam in Coimbatore under the guidance and tutelage of Pujya Swamiji, and at Swami Dayananda Ashram in Rishikesh under Swami Tattvavidananda ji.

Among Arsha Vidya disciples, Swami Sachidananda ji's dedicated and loving seva (service) to Pujya Swamiji is well-known. Swami Sachidananda firmly believes that Guru Seva (service to the teacher) is one of the most crucial sadhanas (spiritual practices) in Vedanta.

From his childhood, Swami Sachidananda was drawn to spirituality. He was actively involved in the Chinmaya Mission Balvihar program. His poorvashram (pre-monastic) family was deeply associated with both the Chinmaya Mission and Art of Living, providing him with a rich spiritual atmosphere to grow.

Swami Sachidananda Saraswati (Brief Introduction)

In 2011, Swami Sachidananda completed his bachelor's degree at Christ University, Bangalore, graduating as the gold medalist. Following his spiritual calling, he was led to Pujya Swami Dayananda Saraswati ji.

In 2018, at the age of 29, he received Sannyasa deeksha (initiation into monastic life) from Swami Tattvavidananda ji, making him one of the youngest sannyasis in the Arsha Vidya Parampara.

Swami Sachidananda has conducted numerous Vedanta retreats at various locations, including: Swami Dayananda Ashram, Rishikesh, Arsha Vidya Gurukulam, Coimbatore and Other venues across India

Currently, Swami Sachidananda ji offers Vedanta classes, Public lectures and workshops, Retreats, Social service activities in Bangalore at Arsha Vidya Kendra. He also conducts classes and retreats at Arsha Vidya Gurukulam in Saylorsburg, U.S.A.

Swami Sachidananda Saraswati (Brief Introduction)

Swamiji is also the head of Sri Vasavi Peetam. Sri Vasavi Peetam is the spiritual and Religious center for all the Hundreds of Vasavi Temples across southern states of India and for the devotees of Vasavi Kanyakaparameshwari. Swami Sachidananda Saraswati ji is the 2nd pontiff of the Peetam. Swamiji provides spiritual guidance to thousands of devotees of the community. There are hundreds of Charitable projects such as Vasavi Schools, Free hostels, Community centers, cooperative banks , Hospital from the community.

Expanding his horizons, Swami Sachidananda completed a fellowship at Harvard Divinity School in 2024. During this time, where his research focused on comparative religion.

Swami Sachidananda ji's vision is to disseminate wisdom, love , meditation practices, Vedantic knowledge globally, helping people discover their true nature, which is Ananda.

www.arshavidya.org/swami-sachidananda-saraswati

www.swamisachidananda.com

www.vasavipeetam.com

swamisca@gmail.com